

Section G. [Technology development and transfer] – Paragraphs 132.4 and 133.2¹

Version of 9 June 2015 at 20:00

Output of facilitated meeting of 9 June 2015

Paragraph 132.4 (Paragraph 131.4 of the Streamlined and consolidated text version of 8 June 2015 @ 19:00):

- In response to a suggestion by a group of Parties, the Facilitator proposed to continue with the consolidation/streamlining exercise of the paragraphs identified and, whenever applicable, to further discuss the concept behind the paragraph. Parties agreed to consolidate Option (a) (chapeau) and Option (b) (chapeau) of this paragraph as follows:

132.4. [[All Parties] [Developed country Parties], in accordance with the principles of and obligations under the Convention, to establish means to [facilitate] [promote] access to and the deployment [of [safe, appropriate and environmentally, economically and socially sound] technology] [, application, diffusion, including transfer, of technologies, practices and processes,] while [promoting] [enhancing] and rewarding innovation in [adaptation and mitigation technologies] [environmentally sound technologies] [for adaptation and mitigation] [on the basis of the strengthening of sustainable development trajectories and poverty eradication] [the following]:]

Paragraph 133.2 (Paragraph 132.2 of the Streamlined and consolidated text version of 8 June 2015 @ 19:00):

Observations:

- Some Parties noted that elements contained in sub-paragraphs b. i, ii, and iii under Option 1 of this paragraph are matters that are addressed in agenda items under the COP and its subsidiary bodies. In this regard, it was noted that Parties may request the co-facilitators and the secretariat to undertake analysis of which elements of the paragraph have been dealt with under current work of the Bodies and which could constitute decision materials.
- Some Parties noted that sub-paragraphs a. and d. under Option 1 of this paragraph could be further consolidated.
