

Andrea Kutter
Senior Program Coordinator, Administrative Unit, CIF

A physical geographer by training, since 2009 Andrea Kutter has been the Senior Program Coordinator for the Forest Investment Program (FIP) and the Pilot Program for Climate Resilience (PPCR) in the Climate Investment Funds (CIF) Administrative Unit.

Prior to that, she was the Senior Natural Resources Management Specialist in the Secretariat of the Global Environment Facility (GEF). She has also worked as a Technical Officer for Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) in Argentina focusing on sustainable land management in dry zones, and she began her career in the Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO) working on Agenda 21 and land use planning.