

Juan Hoffmaister

Legal Adviser, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bolivia; Adaptation Committee member and representing the Chair of the Committee

Mr. Juan P. Hoffmaister is a specialist on international governance and law, with expertise in adaptation, disaster risk reduction, and development. He works for the Universidad de la Cordillera, La Paz and as a senior advisor to the Bolivian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He also serves as negotiator for the Group of 77 and China in multiple issues related to adaptation. Mr. Hoffmaister is a member of the UNFCCC Adaptation Committee, representing Latin America and the Caribbean.

He has postgraduate studies in international law, a masters in international governance and ecosystems, and a bachelors on ecology and environmental policy. He has authored and co-authored multiple peer-reviewed publications on adaptation finance and the use of development instruments for achieving climate co-benefits.