Agenda item 3.3

Enhanced action on adaptation version of 17 June @ 11:30 am

Note by the Facilitator: draft decision text

The Conference of the Parties,

Recalling decision 1/CP.16,

Reaffirming that adaptation is a challenge faced by all Parties, and that enhanced action and international cooperation on adaptation is urgently required to enable and support the implementation of adaptation actions aimed at reducing vulnerability and building resilience in developing country Parties, taking into account the urgent and immediate needs of those developing countries that are particularly vulnerable,

Reaffirming also that enhanced action on adaptation should be undertaken in accordance with the Convention, should follow a country-driven, gender-sensitive, participatory and fully transparent approach, taking into consideration vulnerable groups, communities and ecosystems, and should be based on and guided by the best available science and, as appropriate, traditional and indigenous knowledge, with a view to integrating adaptation into relevant social, economic and environmental policies and actions, where appropriate,

Having established the Adaptation Committee in decision 1/CP.16, paragraph 20,

Emphasizing that the work of the Adaptation Committee should be guided by the need for effectiveness, efficiency, transparency, good governance and avoiding duplication of work, and should take into account gender perspectives,

Governance

1. Affirms that the Adaptation Committee shall be the overall advisory body to the Conference of the Parties on adaptation, and shall promote the implementation of enhanced action on adaptation in a coherent manner under the Convention, inter alia, through the following functions:

(a) Providing technical support and guidance to the Parties, respecting the country-driven approach, with a view to facilitating the implementation of adaptation activities, including those listed in decision 1/CP.16, paragraphs 14 and 15, where appropriate;

(b) Strengthening, consolidating and enhancing the sharing of relevant information, knowledge, experience and good practices, at the local, national, regional and international levels, taking into account, as appropriate, traditional knowledge and practices;

(c) Promoting synergy and strengthening engagement with national, regional and international organizations, centres and networks, in order to enhance the implementation of adaptation actions, in particular in developing country Parties;

(d) Providing information and recommendations, drawing on adaptation good practices, for consideration by the Conference of the Parties when providing guidance on means to incentivize the implementation of adaptation actions, including finance, technology and capacity-building and other ways to enable climate-resilient development and reduce vulnerability, including to the operating entities of the financial mechanism of the Convention, as appropriate;

(e) Considering information communicated by Parties on their monitoring and review of adaptation actions, support provided and received, possible needs and gaps and other relevant information, including information communicated under the Convention, with a view to recommending what further actions may be required, as appropriate;

2. Decides that the Adaptation Committee shall operate under the authority and guidance of, and be fully accountable to, the Conference of the Parties, which should decide on its policies in line with relevant decisions;

Operational modalities for performing the functions of the Adaptation Committee

3. Requests the Adaptation Committee, in performing its functions, to undertake the following, inter alia:

(a) Providing guidance and technical support to Parties, upon request, including through workshops and meetings;

(b) Compiling, reviewing, synthesizing and disseminating information, knowledge, experience and good practices, including through regional centres and networks and as well as national entities;

(c) Developing and preparing targeted reports, technical papers, guidance materials, methodologies, compendiums, web-based resources and other knowledge products;

(d) Creating channels and mechanisms to exchange information, knowledge and expertise, including through the creation of networks of experts at the regional and international levels;

(e) Preparing an annual or biennial report on the status of adaptation, drawing on information from Parties, and other relevant reports and documents, that includes, inter alia, identified experiences, lessons learned, gaps and needs and areas requiring further attention;

Linkages with other relevant institutional arrangements under and outside of the Convention, including at the national and regional levels

4. Requests the Adaptation Committee to engage and work closely and in a coordinated manner with all existing and newly established adaptation-related work programmes, bodies and institutions under the Convention, including, as appropriate, through providing guidance, formulating joint programmes of work, undertaking joint activities and convening timely consultations and joint meetings;

5. Requests also the Adaptation Committee to develop linkages with relevant institutions and bodies outside of the Convention, where appropriate, and to guide and draw upon the expertise, as appropriate, of regional adaptation centres and networks and national-level institutions;

Procedures

6. Requests the Adaptation Committee to develop a strategic mid-term work programme, with annual work plans that specify its milestones, activities and deliverables in performing its agreed functions, linkages with other institutional arrangements under and outside of the Convention, resources needed to support its work and procedures for measuring its performance and impact, for approval by the Conference of the Parties at its eighteenth session/ the subsidiary bodies at their thirty-seventh session;
7. Requests the Adaptation Committee to report annually to the Conference of the Parties/to the Conference of the Parties through the subsidiary bodies, including on its activities, performance of its functions, guidance, recommendations and other relevant information arising from its work, and, as appropriate, on further action and guidance to other bodies under the Convention, including those relating to the financial mechanism, for consideration by the Conference of the Parties/ the subsidiary bodies;
8. Encourages the Adaptation Committee to establish subcommittees, panels, thematic advisory groups or task-focused ad-hoc working groups, if required, to provide, inter alia, expert advice in different sectors and areas, in order to assist the Adaptation Committee in performing its functions and achieving its objectives;

Composition

9. Decides that the Adaptation Committee shall comprise xxx members, who shall serve in their personal capacity, and nominated by their respective groups or constituencies and elected by the Conference of the Parties, with the aim of achieving a fair, equitable and balanced representation, as follows:
