Climate Change Kiosk

Located on the upper concourse, the Climate Change Kiosk (CCKIOSK) is staffed daily between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. The Climate Change Kiosk's primary goal is to provide information about the climate change process and the secretariat as well as the range of secretariat publications and digital materials.

Climate Action talks A series of climate talks, on the theme of “Time for action”, will be held at the Kiosk on selected days, featuring 15-minute presentations by speakers from civil society and governments. Invited speakers will focus on adaptation, technology transfer, CDM opportunities, local and regional level initiatives, and education and outreach. The next presentations will take place on Wednesday, 15 November. A full list is available from the Kiosk or via the online schedule.

Documentation

FCCC/CP/2006/3/Corr.1 Report of the Global Environment Facility to the Conference of the Parties. Note by the secretariat. Corrigendum

Special announcements

- Ministerial statements on the web The statements of ministers and heads of delegation as well as those of observer organizations will be webcast live during the high-level segment. Electronic copies of statements will be placed on the conference website if an electronic copy (.doc or .pdf) is sent to: cgunera@unfccc.int. Technical facilities are, unfortunately, not available to scan hard copy paper versions.
- Translation receivers Participants are kindly requested not to remove translation receivers from the plenary rooms.
- Food in meeting rooms Participants are kindly requested not to bring food into meeting rooms.
- AWG in-session workshop The presentations made at the AWG in-session workshop on 7 November can be viewed at:
<http://unfccc.int/meetings/cop\_12/in-session\_workshops/items/3884.php>.
- Vacancies at the UNFCCC secretariat The secretariat is committed to ensuring equitable geographical distribution and gender balance among its staff. To this end, it would like to especially encourage qualified candidates from developing countries and women candidates to apply for vacancies. Participants at COP 12 and COP/MOP 2 are kindly asked to forward vacancy announcements to qualified individuals in their countries/ organizations. For more details, please consult the secretariat website:
<<http://unfccc.int/secretariat/employment/vacancies/items/1216.php>>.

Official shuttle transport for COP 12
delegates

Kindly note that five shuttle routes have been authorized by the Government of Kenya at a concessional rate of USD 10 (or Kenyan Shilling equivalent) per day round trip as follows. The fee also includes transport to side events.

To facilitate the administration of the shuttles, please register at the Kenya Information Desk, located in the lobby at the main entrance.

Participants are requested to contact Mr. Jeremiah Espira on Tel. No. 0720 467442 in case of queries.

Computing at the conference

A computer centre is available to participants from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on the ground floor of the United Nations Library building. The centre is equipped with PCs with Internet access and printing facilities. Computer support staff wearing red coloured T-shirts are on hand to assist you.

Wireless "plugNplay HOT SPOT" access points are also available in open areas and will be available shortly in the main meeting rooms. Signs will indicate the hot spots.

In addition, the United Nations Library in Nairobi has kindly offered its reference areas on the upper and lower levels to participants of the conference. The upper area is equipped with PCs and wireless "plugNplay HOT SPOT" access points with power connections have been installed on both levels. The Library is open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

PCs, printers and wireless access points are also available to media representatives and journalists in the Media tent in the conference village.

Owing to Internet bandwidth limitations, file size limitations have been imposed on downloads. In addition, users should save their work frequently, in order to avoid the loss of documents should there be a power interruption.

Some computing tips: please make sure your anti-virus and personal firewall are enabled and up-to-date, give your laptop a name so that we can help identify you (or your organization) for trouble-shooting purposes. Do not leave your laptop unattended at any time.

Announcements

Credentials

Credentials of representatives, alternate representatives and advisers shall be issued either by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs. Delegations are kindly requested to forward the corresponding letter of credentials to the secretariat in the Conference Affairs office on the upper concourse (Ms. Dianiah Trought-Dederich).

Delegation nameplates

Delegates are kindly requested not to remove country nameplates from the meeting rooms. The secretariat is unable to replace these at short notice and this can lead to serious disruptions at meetings.

Pigeonholes for delegates

Pigeonholes for the distribution of official documents and messages, which delegates are kindly requested to check at regular intervals, are located in the main plaza between Plenary I (Simba) and Plenary II (Ndovu). Participants are requested to refrain from distributing non-official material via the pigeonholes.

Meditation room

A room for meditation and prayer is available to participants on the lower concourse, in the corridor to the left of plenary II.

UNFCCC security coordination office	Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements.	CE 107, lower concourse, behind plenary I
Lost and found items	Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. Documents left in meeting rooms and on unattended desks will be removed. The UNON Security office, located next to the CC:Kiosk on the upper concourse, is responsible for lost and found items.
Information for participants	A booklet on the facilities available at the conference venue, entitled "Information for participants" is available from the Information desk at the main entrance to the conference venue and also on the COP 12 website .
Facilities for non-governmental organizations	Offices for the business and industry organizations (BINGOs), environmental groups (ENGOs) and local NGOs are located in the World Agroforestry Center (ICRAF).

10 a.m.– 11.30 a.m.	Energy efficiency and programmatic CDM An overview of the supply- and demand-side in energy efficiency projects. The event will explore the role of programmatic CDM in energy efficiency, and what is needed to unlock its future potential	Room 2
11.30 a.m.– 12.30 p.m.	Pricing of CO<sub>2</sub> until 2012 and thereafter Will the price of CERs remain as vibrant after 2012 as in March and April this year?	Room 1
11.30 a.m.– 12.30 p.m.	Carbon capture and storage An overview of the work done on the possible use of carbon capture and storage under the clean development mechanism – boundaries, seepage, leakage and monitoring	Room 2
1.30 p.m.– 3 p.m.	Contracting CDM projects Legal issues around projects under the clean development mechanism and associated contractual arrangements	Room 1
1.30 p.m.– 3 p.m.	Land-use and biomass projects in Africa Presentation of the potential to more effectively use the clean development mechanism on the African continent in terms of LULUCF and biomass projects	Room 2
3 p.m.– 4.30 p.m.	Expanding global emissions trading: prospects for standardized project baselines Presentation of a feasibility study and prospects for adopting standardized baselines under the clean development mechanism	Room 1
3 p.m.– 4.30 p.m.	CDM projects in Africa: case studies Presentation of successful CDM projects in Africa and discussion of the lessons learned. What is needed to make projects a success in Africa, and what potential still exists for CDM projects in Africa	Room 2
4.30 p.m.– 6 p.m.	The contribution of the CDM to sustainable development The potential contribution that the CDM can provide to sustainable development, and in particular the exploration of how African countries can benefit more from the CDM	Room 1
4.30 p.m.– 6 p.m.	How to determine emission reductions Illustrative case studies to describe how emissions reductions are determined, the role of designated operational entities, lessons learned and how project developers can improve their project designs	Room 2

Other activities

Africa's stake in the climate change talks – High-level panel discussion

A high-level panel discussion, organized by the Heinrich Böll Foundation, will take place at the Crystal Ballroom of the Grand Regency Hotel, Nairobi from noon to 4.30 p.m. today.

Olkalou afforestation project

The All African Conference of Churches (AACC), Waiyaki Way, Westlands, invites participants from 11.45 a.m. to 12.45 p.m. to an exhibition, at their premises, on the theme of afforestation for poverty alleviation.

Candlelight gathering of Nairobi schoolchildren

“Don't leave Africa's children in the dark” is the title of a candlelight gathering of Nairobi schoolchildren to symbolize the need for affordable energy. The event takes place at 11.30 a.m. at the All Africa Conference of Churches (AACC), Waiyaki Way, Westlands. Sponsors are the African International Foundation, the Committee For A Constructive Tomorrow (CFACT) and the National Center for Public Policy Research.

African Handicrafts

The East African Handicrafts Association, represented by crafts from Kenya, United Republic of Tanzania and Uganda, have a stall on the lawns of ICRAF. The stall is open daily and the exhibitors look forward to showing their traditional crafts to participants.

Social event

Kenya cultural night

His Excellency, The Vice President and Minister of Home Affairs, Hon. Dr. Moody Awori cordially invites participants to the Kenya cultural night celebrations to be held at the grounds of Kenyatta International Conference Centre (KICC) on 15 November from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Guests are requested to bring along their invitation card or COP 12/COPMOP 2 registration badge.

The official shuttle transport arrangements for COP 12 delegates (see page 16 of this programme), will apply, that is, participants will be transported from the conference venue to the KICC and then to their respective hotels following the event.
