D. Implications of the implementation of decisions 2/CMP.7 to 5/CMP.7 on the previous decisions on methodological issues related to the Kyoto Protocol, including those relating to Articles 5, 7 and 8 of the Kyoto Protocol

previous decisions on methodological issues related to the Kyoto Protocol adopted by the CMP, including those relating to Articles 5, 7 and 8 of the Kyoto Protocol.

122. The SBSTA acknowledged the importance of the technical work under this agenda sub-item for the implementation of the second commitment period under the Kyoto Protocol. It noted that the initial assessment indicated that there is a considerable amount of work to be done on several decisions on methodological issues under the Kyoto Protocol, which should be addressed.

123. To facilitate further progress on this agenda sub-item in 2012, the SBSTA:

(a) Requested the secretariat to prepare a technical paper that includes a comprehensive identification of the implications of decisions 2/CMP.7 to 5/CMP.7 on the previous CMP decisions on methodological issues related to the Kyoto Protocol, including those relating to Articles 5, 7 and 8, building on the presentations made by the secretariat to the SBSTA at its thirty-sixth session and discussions by Parties at that session, and to indicate the technical issues that are relevant to implement these decisions in the second commitment period. The technical paper should include options to address the relevant methodological decisions, with annotations explaining the rationale for these suggested options and the relationship of the suggested options to decisions 2/CMP.7 to 5/CMP.7. This would include identification of paragraphs in methodological decisions where further guidance from Parties is needed. Where applicable, the implications identified should be clustered into generic categories with the aim of ensuring a consistent approach across decisions. The secretariat may also address technical issues arising from the implementation of previous CMP decisions on methodological issues identified in the first commitment period. The technical paper will provide the basis for discussions by participants at the technical workshop mentioned in paragraph 123(d) below. It will also be made available for consideration by Parties at the thirty-seventh session of the SBSTA. The technical paper should be available by 1 September 2012;

(b) Invited Parties to submit to the secretariat, by 21 September 2012, their views on the implications of the implementation of decisions 2/CMP.7 to 5/CMP.7 on the previous CMP decisions on methodological issues related to the Kyoto Protocol, including those relating to Articles 5, 7 and 8 of the Kyoto Protocol, and on how these implications should be addressed;

(c) Requested the secretariat to make these submissions available on the UNFCCC website and to compile them into a miscellaneous document before the workshop referred to in paragraph 123(d) below;

(d) Further requested the secretariat to organize a technical workshop, to be held before the thirty-seventh session of the SBSTA, with the aim of facilitating progress in the consideration of this agenda sub-item at that session to discuss the technical paper referred to in paragraph 123(a) above and to consider Parties' views referred to in paragraph 123(b) above. It requested the secretariat to prepare a report on the workshop before the thirty-seventh session of the SBSTA.

124. The SBSTA agreed to continue, at its thirty-seventh session, consideration on this agenda sub-item, taking into account the technical paper referred to in paragraph 123(a) above, the submissions from Parties referred to in paragraph 123(b) above and the report from the workshop referred to in paragraph 123(d) above, with a view to preparing draft decisions for consideration and adoption by the CMP at its eighth session. It also agreed, if appropriate, to develop further elements of this agenda sub-item to be implemented in 2013, with a view to preparing further draft decisions for consideration and adoption by the CMP at its ninth session.

125. The SBSTA noted with appreciation the IPCC scoping meeting held in Geneva, Switzerland, on 1–4 May 2012 in response to the invitation in decision 2/CMP.7 on the work of the IPCC to review and, if necessary, update supplementary methodologies for estimating anthropogenic GHG emissions by sources and removals by sinks resulting from LULUCF activities under Article 3, paragraphs 3 and 4, of the Kyoto Protocol, on the basis of, inter alia, chapter 4 of its Good Practice Guidance for Land Use, Land-use Change and Forestry.

126. The SBSTA considered the timeline in decision 2/CMP.7 for completion of the work of the IPCC referred to in paragraph 125 above and its subsequent consideration by the SBSTA with a view to forwarding a decision on the matter to the CMP at its tenth session. It noted with concern that this timeline would not allow for the methodological guidance to be adopted in time for the inventory submissions by 15 April 2015, the due date for the inventory submissions for the first year under the second commitment period. Therefore, the SBSTA invited the IPCC to consider the possibility of completing the work on the methodological guidance within a revised time frame, by October 2013, to allow for adoption of a decision on this matter by the CMP at its ninth session

127. The SBSTA requested that the actions of the secretariat called for in paragraph 123(d) above be undertaken subject to the availability of financial resources.

XII. Scientific, technical and socio-economic aspects of mitigation of climate change

2. Conclusions

130. The SBSTA agreed to continue its consideration of the scientific, technical and socio-economic aspects of mitigation at its thirty-eighth session, taking into account the best available scientific information on mitigation, in particular information from the IPCC, and the ongoing work of other bodies under the Convention on related matters.

2. Conclusions

133. The SBSTA noted with appreciation the information paper<sup>37</sup> prepared by the secretariat on relevant activities in which the secretariat has been involved with other intergovernmental organizations and noted the information provided in it.

134. The SBSTA took note of the statements made by representatives of the IPCC and the secretariats of CBD and UNCCD on their activities and efforts to advance the implementation of actions to address climate change in their respective areas of expertise, responding to the needs of, and decisions taken by, Parties, and taking into account potential linkages and synergies.

135. The SBSTA reaffirmed the importance of the secretariat engaging with other intergovernmental organizations, in particular United Nations entities, and with other international organizations as appropriate, to focus on actions that support the effective implementation of the Convention.

136. The SBSTA recognized the resources and expertise that other intergovernmental and international organizations have and that are relevant to the UNFCCC process and encouraged the secretariat to seek support, where appropriate, from relevant international organizations and to work in partnership with these towards the effective implementation of the Convention.

an indication of the administrative and budgetary implications of decisions<sup>39</sup> if these cannot be met from existing resources within the core budget.

140. The Executive Secretary informed Parties that a number of activities resulting from the negotiations at this session call for extra work by the secretariat and, therefore, the secretariat requires additional resources in the coming year over and above the core budget for 2012–2013. A preliminary estimated amount of an additional EUR 340,000 will need to be provided to cover the following activities:

(a) Under agenda item 7 (also under SBI, agenda item 11), “Forum and work programme on the impact of the implementation of response measures”, the secretariat has been requested to arrange in-session workshops and an expert meeting. The cost of these activities is estimated at EUR 45,000;

Draft text on research and systematic observation

1. [The Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice (SBSTA) noted with appreciation the statements delivered by representatives of the World Meteorological Organization (WMO), the Global Climate Observing System (GCOS) and the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC).
2. The SBSTA welcomed the plan of the GCOS Steering Committee and secretariat to prepare, in broad consultation with relevant partners, by early 2015, a third report on the adequacy of the global observing systems for climate<sup>1</sup> and, by 2016, a new implementation plan for the global observing system for climate, which would, inter alia, support the Convention.<sup>2</sup> The SBSTA invited the GCOS secretariat to provide the final implementation plan to the SBSTA in 2016 by its [45th] session, and the third adequacy report to the SBSTA by 2015 at its [43rd] session. The SBSTA encouraged the GCOS to provide a draft of the implementation plan to the SBSTA by its [43rd] session in 2015.
3. [The SBSTA noted that the GCOS secretariat would consider, inter alia, [emerging observational needs for adaptation and for the provision of climate services, and] the findings of the Fifth Assessment Report of the IPCC, in the development of the third adequacy report.]
4. The SBSTA welcomed the activities undertaken by the GCOS secretariat to support efforts to address the needs for climate observations, including the preparation of an update of the Satellite Supplement<sup>3</sup> to the 2010 updated GCOS implementation plan. The SBSTA invited the Committee on Earth Observation Satellites (CEOS) to respond to this new supplement when reporting to the thirty-seventh session of the SBSTA on progress made.<sup>4</sup>
5. The SBSTA further welcomed the regional initiatives of the GCOS secretariat<sup>5</sup> in supporting the development of and improvements to climate observation capacities. The SBSTA invited the GCOS secretariat to further expand such initiatives<sup>6</sup> and encouraged Parties, in a position to do so, to support these efforts.

<sup>1</sup> A report on the adequacy of the climate observing systems was prepared in 1998, followed by a second such report in 2003, both of which are available at <http://www.wmo.int/pages/prog/gcos/index.php?name=Publications>.

<sup>2</sup> For the summary of the GCOS Implementation Plan for the Global Observing System for Climate in Support of the UNFCCC, prepared in 2004, see document FCCC/SBSTA/2004/MISC.16. For the summary of the 2010 update of the plan see document FCCC/SBSTA/2010/MISC.9.

<sup>3</sup> Full title of the Satellite Supplement: Systematic Observation Requirements for Satellite-based Products for Climate. This report provides supplemental details to the satellite-based component of the 2010 update of the GCOS implementation plan. The full report is available at <http://www.wmo.int/pages/prog/gcos/Publications/gcos-154.pdf>.

<sup>4</sup> At its thirty-third session, the SBSTA invited CEOS to provide, by the thirty-seventh session of the SBSTA, an updated report on progress made on major achievements in relevant areas (FCCC/SBSTA/2010/13, para. 53).

<sup>5</sup> Recent regional initiatives of the GCOS secretariat have focused on Africa and South America, as indicated by the GCOS secretariat in its submission to the SBSTA (see FCCC/SBSTA/2012/MISC.4).

6. The SBSTA noted that the report on progress by the Global Terrestrial Observing System (GTOS) secretariat was not submitted to the SBSTA by its thirty-sixth session,<sup>7</sup> and encouraged the GTOS secretariat to submit that report to the SBSTA by its xxth session. The SBSTA highlighted the importance of such reports for the work of the SBSTA.
7. The SBSTA expressed its appreciation to the GCOS sponsors<sup>8</sup> for the support provided to the GCOS programme for the past 20 years, and encouraged them to continue to provide such support. The SBSTA also welcomed the initiative by the GCOS sponsors to undertake a review of GCOS, and invited the GCOS sponsors, through WMO, to inform the SBSTA on the outcome of this review.
8. The SBSTA noted with appreciation the information by WMO on progress made towards implementation of the Global Framework for Climate Services (GFCS), including on the draft GFCS Implementation Plan. The SBSTA invited WMO to keep the SBSTA informed on the developments of the GFCS.
9. The SBSTA noted the importance of systematic observation for vulnerability assessments and adaptation, with specific emphasis on developing countries. The SBSTA encouraged Parties to contribute to the identification of emerging needs for systematic observation in the context of the Convention, in support of the activities mentioned in paragraph 2 above.
10. [The SBSTA noted the potential of systematic observation for carbon monitoring, such as for monitoring carbon fluxes in ecosystems[, and invited GCOS to consider enhancing its activities in this regard.]]
11. [The SBSTA agreed to continue its consideration of systematic observation at its thirty-seventh session, and then revert to its customary practice of focusing on research during the first sessional period of a year and on systematic observation during the second sessional period of a year.]
12. [The SBSTA welcomed the continuation of the research dialogue held during the thirty-sixth session of the SBSTA. It also conveyed its appreciation to the regional and international programs and organizations [footnote on participants] engaged in climate change research, the IPCC and scientific experts for their active participations and contribution to the research dialogue. The SBSTA also expressed its appreciation to Parties for sharing their views on their research needs and priorities.]
13. [SBSTA agreed to focus the next Research Dialogue at SBSTA 38. The SBSTA invited Parties to provide, by 31 January 2013, their views on the research dialogue, including on-going activities, associated modalities and ways to enhance the dialogue. The SBSTA requested the secretariat to compile these submissions to a miscellaneous document for consideration by the SBSTA at its 38th session.]
14. [SBSTA agreed to focus the next research dialogue at SBSTA 38th session on socio-economic and scientific aspects of climate change. SBSTA invited Parties to submit their views on this theme by [date] with the view to organize a workshop before SBSTA 38 to allow in-depth consideration of this theme.]]

<sup>7</sup> At its thirty-third session, the SBSTA invited the secretariat of the GTOS to report to the SBSTA at its thirty-fifth session on progress made on a number of matters relating to climate-related terrestrial observations (see FCCC/SBSTA/2010/13, paras. 47–50). At the thirty-fifth session of the SBSTA, the GTOS secretariat provided a summary of progress (FCCC/SBSTA/2011/MISC. 14), indicating that the report invited by the SBSTA at its thirty-third session would be submitted to the SBSTA at its thirty-sixth session.

<sup>8</sup> The sponsors of GCOS are the following: WMO, the Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the United Nations Environment Programme and the International Council for Science.
