ADP 2-6 Virtual Expo

The Technical Expert Meetings at ADP 2-6 will focus on opportunities for action on non-CO2 greenhouse gases and carbon capture, use and storage. In this context, the ADP Co-Chairs invite Parties and observer organizations to showcase initiatives and projects on these topics on our website.

This is an opportunity for all Parties and observer organizations to share information electronically through the uploading facility of the Side Event and Exhibits Online Registration System (SEORS).

For further details on the ADP 2-6 Virtual Expo, please click here.

Virtual Participation

Webcasts

For the duration of the ADP sessions, webcasts of all official meetings and press conferences will be available live and on demand, with audio streams in English or the language being used on the floor. On-demand files of the webcasts will be available shortly after the close of each meeting.

Accessing multimedia content

Apart from website information on <unfccc.int>, the secretariat offers a mobile version of the UNFCCC website <mobile.unfccc.int> and the official iPhone/iPad application 'Negotiator' for the conference. Using the iPhone/iPad application 'Negotiator', users can:

- get logistical information about the conference (directories, venue maps, etc.);
- read the latest documents, agendas and meeting information;
- view the latest YouTube videos and photos from the conference;
- join the conference via the Facebook and Twitter channels.

Please note that the updated 'Negotiator' can be downloaded for free via iTunes: <unfccc.int/iphoneapp>.

Social media

Community tools, such as Facebook, Twitter and Flickr will allow to participate in and to respond to the conference in Bonn. All links can be found on the Bonn conference page on <unfccc.int> and include:

- Twitter: The UNFCCC secretariat will tweet from its Twitter account @UN_ClimateTalks, and its Executive Secretary, Ms. Christiana Figueres, will tweet from @CFigueres.

Security / Lost and Found Office

Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. For security reasons, unattended items found anywhere on the conference premises will be removed by security.

The UN Security/Lost and Found Office, located at the entrance to the WCCB, is responsible for lost and found items.

Security

Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience, but it is expected that participants will appreciate the need for such arrangements.

ADVISORY NOTE TO ALL UN VISITORS AND CONFERENCE/MEETING PARTICIPANTS EBOLA VIRUS DISEASE PROTOCOL

Ebola virus disease (EVD) is a rare and severe viral disease. The virus can infect both humans and non-human primates (monkeys, gorillas, etc.). When infected, people can get very sick and experience fever, intense weakness, headache, sore throat and pains, and may bleed from different parts of the body (i.e., hemorrhage). There is currently no licensed vaccine or specific treatment for EVD.

The majority of cases in humans have occurred as a result of human-to-human transmission. Infection occurs by direct contact (through broken skin or mucous membranes) with the blood, secretions, organs or other body fluids of infected people, and with surfaces and materials (e.g. bedding, clothing) contaminated with these fluids. People become contagious only after they start to show symptoms.

While EVD has a high mortality rate and there is no preventive medication or specific cure available, visitors/participants should be aware that according to the World Health Organization, the risk of introducing EVD to and transmitting it at an international meeting is generally very low. There is no evidence of airborne transmission of EVD.

The purpose of this note is to provide the following essential information so that you are aware of the symptoms of EVD and know what to do in case you get sick during your visit or meeting, so that you may protect your own health and safety and that of other visitors/participants and of UN staff.

Know the symptoms of EVD and see a health care provider immediately if you have any symptoms of the disease.

The symptoms of EVD include:

Sudden onset of fever	Intense weakness
Muscle pain	Headache
Sore throat

This is followed by:

Vomiting	Diarrhea
Rash	Impaired kidney and liver function
In some cases, both internal and external bleeding

If you are experiencing any of the above symptoms, please be sure to follow the steps below:

During working/meeting hours at UN premises:

- Immediately contact the First Aid staff present at the premises;
- In case your condition requires evaluation for possible EVD, an isolation room will be available and trained and equipped emergency medical staff with an ambulance will be called in to assist.

During non-working/meeting hours:

- If you are staying at a hotel, please do not approach the hotel reception or use public or private transport to get to a hospital or clinic;
- Please stay in your hotel room and call immediately the UN Bonn Security Control Center at 0228-815-0911, which will arrange for an ambulance with emergency medical staff to go to your hotel room and to provide the necessary medical care.
