

COP18, Doha

CJN! High Level Segment speech by Anjali Appadurai

This message is not for the blockers of progress, the bullies on the playground at these talks. Although they should take heed.

This message is for the most vulnerable: the developing countries and for civil society, the citizens of the world whose futures are being played with in these halls.

No finance, no cuts, no humanity, no justice - no deal.

Don't stand for a bad deal!
