CONFERENCE OF THE PARTIES
Third session
Kyoto, 1-10 December 1997
Item 2 (b) of the provisional agenda

ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS

ADOPTION OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE

Note by Mr. Chen Chimutengwende (Zimbabwe), President of the Conference of the Parties at its second session, on his informal consultations on the draft rules of procedure

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Article 7.2(k) of the Convention provides that the Conference of the Parties (COP) shall agree upon and adopt, by consensus, rules of procedure and financial rules for itself and for any subsidiary bodies.
2. Article 7.3 further provides that the COP shall, at its first session, adopt its own rules of procedure as well as those of the subsidiary bodies established by the Convention, which shall include decision-making procedures for matters not already covered by decision-making procedures stipulated in the Convention. Such procedures may include specified majorities for the adoption of particular decisions.

3. It will be recalled that the Conference of the Parties, at its first session, was unable to adopt its rules of procedure and decided to apply the draft rules contained in document A/AC.237/L.22/Rev. 2, as amended by document FCCC/CP/1995/2, with the exception of draft rule 42 (see FCCC/CP/1995/7, para.10). It was further decided that the President of the Conference of the Parties would conduct informal consultations on the draft rules of procedure with a view to advancing consensus and report to the Conference of the Parties at its second session on the outcome of the consultations. In her opening statement to the Conference of the Parties at its second session, the outgoing President reported that her consultations had not achieved the desired results and that the differences among the Parties remained unresolved.

4. The Conference of the Parties, at its second session, was again unable to adopt the draft rules and the President ruled that the draft rules of procedure should continue to be applied as at its first session (see FCCC/CP/1996/15, para. 12). The President of the Conference expressed his intention to carry out further consultations during the intersessional period, with a view to enabling the Conference to adopt its rules of procedure at the outset of the third session.

5. The draft rules of procedure are contained in document FCCC/CP/1996/2. The main outstanding issue concerns the majorities required for the adoption of specific types of decisions on matters of substance (rule 42, paragraph 1). Views are widely divergent on this issue. Some disagreement also persists on the composition of the Bureau of the COP (rule 22, paragraph 1).

II. DRAFT RULE 42, PARAGRAPH 1 (majorities required for decisions on matters of substance)

6. The President held informal consultations on draft rule 42, paragraph 1, with some ministers during the high-level segment of the UNEP Governing Council in February 1997, Nairobi, Kenya. In view of the positive response from those ministers, he invited ministers attending the ministerial segment of the Commission on Sustainable Development to join him in further consultations. At a luncheon organized with the assistance of the Government of Japan at United Nations Headquarters on 10 April 1997, the ministers and the representatives present expressed their views on the majorities required for decisions on matters of substance. In addition to the views expressed on that occasion, some ministers communicated views and comments to the President in writing. The President also conducted additional consultations during the sessions of the subsidiary bodies held in July-August and October 1997. The following positions regarding voting majorities were discerned by the President as a result of these consultations:

(a) Consensus or general agreement on all matters of substance (including the adoption of a protocol);

(b) Three-fourths majority on all matters of substance (including the adoption of a protocol);

- (c) Two-thirds majority on all matters of substance (including the adoption of a protocol);
- (d) Double majority (Annex I and non-Annex I Parties) on all matters of substance (including the adoption of a protocol);
- (e) Consensus on matters relating to the financial mechanism and at least a two-thirds majority on all other matters of substance (including the adoption of a protocol);
- (f) Double three-fourths majority (Annex I and non-Annex I Parties) on matters relating to the financial mechanism;
- (g) Seven-eighths on all matters of substance (consensus required for a protocol); and
- (h) Three-fourths majority on all matters of substance, including the adoption of a protocol, and a simple double majority on matters relating to the financial mechanism.

7. The following general conclusions were drawn by the President, as a basis for a possible agreement on procedures on taking decisions on matters of substance:

- (a) Parties should aim at reaching consensus on all such matters;
- (b) Consensus does not mean unanimity; and
- (c) Wherever it is not possible to reach decisions by consensus, the Parties may resort to voting.

8. The President of COP 2 wishes to advance the following options on substantive decision-making for consideration by the Conference of the Parties:

(a) Option 1: Three-fourths majority

9. The first option for consideration is a three-fourths majority of Parties present and voting for all decisions on matters of substance, including the adoption of a protocol and decisions regarding the financial mechanism. This is the same voting majority as that established by Article 15 of the Convention for the adoption of amendments, if the Parties are unable to reach agreement by consensus.

Three-fourths majority, if all Parties are present and vote:

No. of Parties	Three-fourths majority
171	128

Three-fourths majority, if two-thirds of the Parties are present and vote (rule 31 requires a quorum of two-thirds of the Parties for a decision to be taken):

No. of Parties	Two-thirds of Parties present at a meeting	Three-fourths of Parties present and voting
171	114	86

(b) Option 2: Seven-eighths majority

10. The second option is a seven-eighths majority of Parties present and voting for all decisions on matters of substance, including the adoption of a protocol and decisions regarding the financial mechanism. This large majority for substantive decisions should meet the concerns of all groups of Parties, including those that fear that their concerns may not be taken into account if voting majorities are not large enough.

Seven-eighths majority, if all Parties are present and vote:

No. of Parties present and voting	Seven-eighths majority
171	150

Seventh-eighths majority, if two-thirds of the Parties are present and vote (rule 31 requires a quorum of two-thirds of the Parties for a decision to be taken):

No. of Parties	Two-thirds of Parties present at a meeting	Seven-eighths of Parties present and voting
171	114	100

11. The President discerned a certain interest in this option and suggests the COP may wish to give further consideration to it.

III. DRAFT RULE 22, PARAGRAPH I
(Composition of the Bureau of the COP)

12. This matter was considered in the informal consultations in the light of the request from a number of Parties that depend on the export of fossil fuels that an additional seat on the Bureau be reserved for Parties covered by Article 4.8(h). This would require a modification of rule 22 as presently drafted.

13. Several of the Parties involved in the informal consultations did not favour reopening discussions on draft rule 22. They were of the view that the Bureau should remain as presently constituted, and considered that concerns of special interest groups should be accommodated within the various regional groups. It was noted, however, that draft rule 22, paragraph 1, made explicit provision for the special interest group of the small island developing States.

IV. RECOMMENDATION

14. In order to ensure the smooth functioning of the third session of the Conference of the Parties, the President of the Conference of the Parties at its second session invites the Conference to adopt the draft decision contained in annex I to this report, which calls for the adoption of the rules of procedure annexed to the draft decision, with the exception of draft rule 22, paragraph 1, and draft rule 42, paragraph 1, on the understanding that draft rule 22, paragraph 1, shall continue to be applied.

15. The President of the Conference of the Parties at its third session may wish to undertake further consultations, with a view to resolving the remaining issues on the rules of procedure.

Annex I

Draft decision for adoption by the Conference of the Parties at its third session

Decision --/CP.3

The Conference of the Parties,

Recalling Article 7.2(k) and 7.3 of the Convention,

Recalling that the Conference of the Parties at its first session decided, on the proposal of the President, to apply the draft rules of procedure as amended, with the exception of draft rule 42 (FCCC/CP/1995/7, para. 10),

Recalling further that, at the second session of the Conference of the Parties, the President ruled that the draft rules of procedure should continue to be applied, with the exception of draft rule 42 (FCCC/CP/1996/15, para.12),

Recognizing that it would assist the functioning of the Conference of the Parties to adopt those parts of the rules of procedure that have been applied at previous sessions,

1. Adopts the rules of procedure that are annexed to this decision, with the exception of rule 22, paragraph 1, and rule 42, paragraph 1, on the understanding that rule 22, paragraph 1, shall continue to be applied;
2. Welcomes the considerable efforts made by the successive Presidents of the Conference of the Parties to bring about finalization of the rules and invites the President of the Conference of the Parties at its third session to undertake consultations with a view to resolving the remaining issues.

Rule 14

The provisional agenda for an extraordinary session shall consist only of those items proposed for consideration in the request for the holding of the extraordinary session. It shall be distributed to the Parties at the same time as the invitation to the extraordinary session.

Rule 15

The secretariat shall report to the Conference of the Parties on the administrative and budgetary implications of all substantive agenda items submitted to the session, before they are considered by it. Unless the Conference of the Parties decides otherwise, no such substantive agenda item shall be considered until at least forty-eight hours after the Conference of the Parties has received the report of the secretariat on the administrative and budgetary implications.

Rule 16

Any item of the agenda of an ordinary session, consideration of which has not been completed at the session, shall be included automatically in the agenda of the next ordinary session, unless otherwise decided by the Conference of the Parties.

VII. REPRESENTATION AND CREDENTIALS

Rule 17

Each Party participating in a session shall be represented by a delegation consisting of a head of delegation and such other accredited representatives, alternate representatives and advisers as it may require.

Rule 18

An alternate representative or an adviser may act as a representative upon designation by the head of delegation.

Rule 19

The credentials of representatives as well as the names of alternate representatives and advisers shall be submitted to the secretariat if possible not later than twenty-four hours after the opening of the session. Any later change in the composition of the delegation shall also be submitted to the secretariat. Rule 20

The Bureau of any session shall examine the credentials and submit its report to the Conference of the Parties.

Rule 21

Representatives shall be entitled to participate provisionally in the session, pending a decision by the Conference of the Parties to accept their credentials.

VIII. OFFICERS

Rule 22

1. At the commencement of the first meeting of each ordinary session, a President, seven Vice-Presidents, the Chairmen of the subsidiary bodies established by Articles 9 and 10 of the Convention, and a Rapporteur shall be elected from among the representatives of the Parties present at the session. They will serve as the Bureau of the session. Each of the five regional groups shall be represented by two Bureau members and one Bureau member shall represent the small island developing states. The offices of President and Rapporteur shall normally be subject to rotation among the five regional groups.

2. The officers referred to in paragraph 1 above, shall remain in office until their successors are elected at the next ordinary session and shall serve in that capacity at any intervening extraordinary sessions. No officer may serve on the Bureau for more than two consecutive terms of one year.

3. The President shall participate in the session in that capacity and shall not at the same time exercise the rights of a representative of a Party. The Party concerned shall designate another representative who shall be entitled to represent the Party in the session and to exercise the right to vote.

Rule 23

1. In addition to exercising the powers conferred upon the President elsewhere by these rules, the President shall declare the opening and closing of the session, preside at the meetings of the session, ensure the observance of these rules, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions. The President shall rule on points of order and, subject to these rules, shall have complete control of the proceedings and over the maintenance of order thereat.

2. The President may propose to the Conference of the Parties the closure of the list of speakers, a limitation on the time to be allowed to speakers and on the number of times each representative may speak on a question, the adjournment or the closure of the debate and the suspension or the adjournment of a meeting.

3. The President, in the exercise of the functions of that office, remains under the authority of the Conference of the Parties.

Rule 24

The President, if temporarily absent from a meeting or any part thereof, shall designate a Vice-President to act as President. The President so designated shall not at the same time exercise the rights of a representative of a Party.

Rule 25

Rule 26

At the first meeting of each ordinary session, the President of the previous ordinary session, or in the absence of the President, a Vice-President, shall preside until the meeting has elected a President for the session.

IX. SUBSIDIARY BODIES

Rule 27

1. These rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to the proceedings of the subsidiary bodies.
2. The Conference of the Parties may establish, in accordance with Article 7.2(i), such subsidiary bodies as are deemed necessary for the implementation of the Convention.
3. In the case of a subsidiary body that is not open-ended, a majority of the Parties designated by the Conference of the Parties to participate therein shall constitute a quorum.
4. The Conference of the Parties shall decide on the dates of the sessions of the subsidiary bodies, taking note of the desirability of holding such sessions in conjunction with the sessions of the Conference of the Parties.
5. Unless the Conference of the Parties decides otherwise, the Chairman of any subsidiary body other than those established by Articles 9 and 10 of the Convention, shall be elected by that subsidiary body from among the representatives of the Parties present at the session. The Chairmen, Vice-Chairmen and Rapporteurs of such subsidiary bodies shall be elected with due regard to the principle of equitable geographical representation and shall not serve for more than two consecutive terms of one year.
6. Each subsidiary body shall elect its own Vice-Chairman and Rapporteur.

7. Subject to Articles 9 and 10 of the Convention, the Conference of the Parties shall determine the matters to be considered by each subsidiary body and may authorize the President, upon the request of the Chairman of a subsidiary body, to adjust the allocation of work.

X. SECRETARIAT

Rule 28

1. The head of the secretariat of the Convention, or the representative of the head of the secretariat, shall act in that capacity in all sessions of the Conference of the Parties and of its subsidiary bodies.

2. The head of the secretariat of the Convention shall arrange for the provision of staff and services required by the Conference of the Parties and its subsidiary bodies, within available resources. The head of the secretariat of the Convention shall manage and direct such staff and services and provide appropriate support and advice to the presiding and other officers of the Conference of the Parties and of its subsidiary bodies.

Rule 29

In addition to the functions specified in Article 8 of the Convention, the secretariat shall in accordance with these rules:

- (a) Arrange for interpretation at the session;
- (b) Receive, translate, reproduce and distribute the documents of the session;
- (c) Publish and distribute the official documents of the session;
- (d) Make and arrange for keeping of sound recordings of the session;
- (e) Arrange for the custody and preservation of the documents of the session; and
- (f) Perform all other work that the Conference of the Parties may require.

XI. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Rule 30¹

1. Meetings of the Conference of the Parties shall be held in public, unless the Conference of the Parties decides otherwise.
2. Meetings of the subsidiary bodies shall be held in private unless the Conference of the Parties decides otherwise.

Rule 31

The President shall not declare a meeting of the Conference of the Parties open or permit the debate to proceed unless at least one third of the Parties to the Convention are present. The presence of two thirds of the Parties to the Convention shall be required for any decision to be taken.

Rule 32

1. No one may speak at a meeting of the Conference of the Parties without having previously obtained the permission of the President. Subject to Rules 33, 34, 35 and 38, the President shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The secretariat shall maintain a list of speakers. The President may call a speaker to order if his remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion.
2. The Conference of the Parties may, on a proposal from the President or from any Party, limit the time allowed to each speaker and the number of times each representative may speak on a question. Before a decision is taken, two representatives may speak in favour of and two against a proposal to set such limits. When the debate is limited and a speaker exceeds the allotted time, the President shall call the speaker to order without delay.

Rule 33

The Chairman or Rapporteur of a subsidiary body may be accorded precedence for the purpose of explaining the conclusions arrived at by that subsidiary body.

¹ Paragraph 106 (c) of the Report of the Committee on its eighth session (A/AC.237/41) states: "Consistent with the Rules of Procedure of the Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes and their Disposal, upon which the draft rules were largely based, Rule 30 of the draft rules of procedure would be interpreted as permitting duly accredited observers to participate in 'private' meetings."

Rule 34

During the discussion of any matter, a representative may at any time raise a point of order which shall be decided immediately by the President in accordance with these rules. A representative may appeal against the ruling of the President. The appeal shall be put to the vote immediately and the ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the Parties present and voting. A representative may not, in raising a point of order, speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.

Rule 35

Any motion calling for a decision on the competence of the Conference of the Parties to discuss any matter or to adopt a proposal or an amendment to a proposal submitted to it shall be put to the vote before the matter is discussed or a vote taken on the proposal or amendment in question.

Rule 36

Proposals and amendments to proposals shall normally be introduced in writing by the Parties and handed to the secretariat, which shall circulate copies to delegations. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or put to the vote at any meeting unless copies of it have been circulated to delegations not later than the day preceding the meeting. The President may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of amendments to proposals or of procedural motions even though these amendments or motions have not been circulated or have been circulated only the same day.

Rule 37

The text of any proposed amendment, annex or protocol to the Convention and of any proposed amendment to an annex, shall be communicated to the Parties by the secretariat at least six months before the session at which it is proposed for adoption.

Rule 38

1. Subject to Rule 34, the following motions shall have precedence in the order indicated below over all other proposals or motions:

- (a) To suspend the meeting;
- (b) To adjourn the meeting;
- (c) To adjourn the debate on the question under discussion;
- (d) To close the debate on the question under discussion.

2. Permission to speak on a motion falling within (a) to (d) above shall be granted only to the proposer and, in addition, to one speaker in favour of and two against the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 39

A proposal or motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has begun, provided that the proposal or motion has not been amended. A proposal or motion withdrawn may be reintroduced by any other Party.

Rule 40

When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same session, unless the Conference of the Parties, by a two-thirds majority of the Parties present and voting, decides in favour of reconsideration. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

XII. VOTING

Rule 41

1. Each Party shall have one vote, except as provided for in paragraph 2 of this rule.
2. Regional economic integration organizations, in matters within their competence, shall exercise their right to vote with a number of votes equal to the number of their member States that are Parties to the Convention. Such an organization shall not exercise its right to vote if any of its member States exercises its right, and vice versa.

Rule 42

[1. Alternative A

The Parties shall make every effort to reach agreement on all matters of substance by consensus. If all efforts to reach consensus have been exhausted and no agreement has been reached, the decision shall, as a last resort, be taken by a two-thirds majority vote of the Parties present and voting, except:

- (a) as otherwise provided by the Convention, the financial rules referred to in Article 7, paragraph 2 (k) of the Convention or the present rules of procedure[.] [;]

- [(b) for a decision to adopt a proposed protocol, which shall be taken by [consensus] [a three-fourths majority of the Parties present and voting][.] [;]
- [(c) for decisions under paragraph 3 of Article 4 and paragraphs 1, 3 or 4 of Article 11 of the Convention, which shall be taken by consensus.]

1. Alternative B

Decisions on matters of substance shall be taken by consensus, except that decisions on financial matters shall be taken by a two-thirds majority vote.]

- 2. Decisions of the Conference of the Parties on matters of procedure shall be taken by a majority vote of the Parties present and voting.
- 3. If the question arises as to whether a matter is one of a procedural or substantive nature, the President shall rule on the question. An appeal against this ruling shall be put to the vote immediately and the President's ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the Parties present and voting.
- 4. If, on matters other than elections, a vote is equally divided, a second vote shall be taken. If this vote is also equally divided, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.
- 5. For the purposes of this rule, the phrase "Parties present and voting" means Parties present at the meeting at which voting takes place and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Parties abstaining from voting shall be considered as not voting.

Rule 43

If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Conference of the Parties, unless it decides otherwise, shall vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted. The Conference of the Parties may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.

Rule 44

Any representative may request that any part of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal be voted on separately. The President shall allow the request unless a Party objects. If an objection is made to the request for division, the President shall permit two representatives to speak, one in favour of and the other against the request, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 45

If the request referred to in Rule 44 is allowed or adopted, those parts of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal which are approved shall then be put to the vote as a whole. If all the operative parts of a proposal or amendment have been rejected, the proposal or amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Rule 46

A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from, or revises parts of that proposal. An amendment shall be voted on before the proposal to which it relates is put to the vote, and if the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted on.

Rule 47

If two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the Conference of the Parties shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom, and so on, until all amendments have been put to the vote. The President shall determine the order of voting on the amendments under this rule.

Rule 48

Voting, except for elections, shall normally be by show of hands. A roll-call vote shall be taken if one is requested by any Party. It shall be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the Parties participating in the session, beginning with the Party whose name is drawn by lot by the President. However, if at any time a Party requests a secret ballot, that shall be the method of voting on the issue in question.

Rule 49

The vote of each Party participating in a roll-call vote shall be recorded in the relevant documents of the session.

Rule 50

After the President has announced the beginning of voting, no representative shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. The President may permit the Parties to explain their votes, either before or after the voting. The President may limit the time to be allowed for such explanations. The President shall not permit the proposer of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal to explain his vote on his own proposal or amendment, except if it has been amended.

Rule 51

All elections shall be held by secret ballot, unless otherwise decided by the Conference of the Parties.

Rule 52

1. If, when one person or one delegation is to be elected, no candidate obtains in the first ballot a majority of the votes cast by the Parties present and voting, a second ballot restricted to the two candidates obtaining the largest number of votes shall be taken. If in the second ballot the votes are equally divided, the President shall decide between the candidates by drawing lots.

2. In the case of a tie in the first ballot among three or more candidates obtaining the largest number of votes, a second ballot shall be held. If a tie results among more than two candidates, the number shall be reduced to two by lot and the balloting, restricted to them, shall continue in accordance with the procedure set forth in paragraph 1 of this rule.

Rule 53

1. When two or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates, not exceeding the number of such places, obtaining in the first ballot the largest number of votes and a majority of the votes cast by the Parties present and voting shall be deemed elected.

2. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of persons or delegations to be elected, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, provided that, after the third inconclusive ballot, votes may be cast for any eligible person or delegation.

3. If three such unrestricted ballots are inconclusive, the next three ballots shall be restricted to the candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes in the third of the unrestricted ballots, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, and the following three ballots thereafter shall be unrestricted, and so on until all the places have been filled.

XIII. LANGUAGES

Rule 54

The official languages of the Conference of the Parties shall be Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.

Rule 55

1. Statements made in an official language shall be interpreted into the other official languages.
2. A representative of a Party may speak in a language other than an official language if the Party provides for interpretation into one such official language.

Rule 56

Official documents of the sessions shall be drawn up in one of the official languages and translated into the other official languages.

XIV. SOUND RECORDS OF THE SESSIONS OF THE
