

Guidance from Board

- clarify that project activities that result in emission reductions due to the use/consumption of a product produced in the project activity are only eligible as CDM project activity if:
  - i. the users/consumers of the product are included in the project boundary; and
  - ii. monitoring takes place of the actual use/consumption and location of the product used/consumed by consumers.