

Technology Executive Committee

07 March 2023

Twenty-sixth meeting

In-person meeting, 21–23 March and 24 March 2023 (TEC-CTCN Joint session)

Draft provisional agenda for TEC-CTCN joint session

COP27(CMA4) welcomed the collaboration of the TEC and the CTCN in their joint work in 2022 and invited them to continue undertaking joint work and enhance their exchange of systematic feedback with a view to ensuring coherence and synergy and effective implementation of the Technology Mechanism (Technology Framework).

COP27(CMA4) welcomed with appreciation the first joint work programme of the Technology Mechanism,¹ for 2023–2027 and invited the TEC and CTCN to jointly pursue collaborative partnerships and strategic engagement with bodies, processes and initiatives under and outside the Convention (Paris Agreement), including in the private sector, with a view to facilitating the implementation of all activities under the joint work programme.

Pursuant to guidance from COP27/CMA4, the TEC and CTCN continue to implement joint activities that have been agreed to take place in 2023,² and will pursue the implementation of joint activities and those related to common areas of work outlined in the joint work programme, namely in areas of technology road maps, digitalization, national systems of innovation, water–energy–food systems, energy systems, buildings and infrastructure, business and industry, and technology needs assessment.

This joint session aims to:

1. Provide a comprehensive reflection on the outcome of COP 27/ Sharm el Sheikh conference; on technology' and the global stocktake;
2. Share up-to-date information from both bodies' activities, including feedback from the work of each body;
3. Take stock of progress of and provide guidance for the implementation of existing joint activities;
4. Discuss the operationalization of the Joint work programme of the Technology Mechanism for 2023–2027.
