DESCRIPTION

The sixth instalment in the series brings our host, Eva Costas, together with Umbreen Salim, Founder and Managing Director of SEEK Feminist Network and Pia Revello, Independent Consultant at CEO SABANA ORG as well as Director of CEPAMB (Center for Environmental Peace) for a deep dive into the linkages between climate change, migration, capacity-building and women's perspectives.

This episode also explores the capacity-building efforts led by migrant and Indigenous women to facilitate knowledge co-creation, foster international cooperation, shape gender-sensitive policies, and scale impactful solutions.
