

The Climate Explorer

Providing Institution(s)

United States of America

Topic(s)

Enhanced Transparency Framework (ETF)

Geographical reach

National, North America

Target level of capacity building

Institutional

Resource Type

Tool

Resource Language(s)

English (EN)

Resource Date

RESOURCE LINK

Access

DESCRIPTION

The Climate Explorer gives users a way to check how climate conditions in the United States are projected to change over the coming decades.

Built to accompany the U.S.

Climate Resilience Toolkit, Climate Explorer graphs projections for two possible futures: one in which humans drastically reduce and stabilize global emissions of heat-trapping gases, and one in which we continue increasing emissions through the end of the 21st century.