

UNFCCC Technology Mechanism Invitation for Partnerships

Expression of Interest Form

1. Contact details of interested entity

1. Name of entity
2. Type of entity
3. Contact information and website of the entity
4. Contact information and title of the person submitting the form
5. Key area(s) of entity's focus and expertise
6. Geographic scope of entity's operations
7. Status in relation to the UNFCCC (Party/observer/none)
8. Other relevant information

2. Scope & focus of intended partnership

1. Title of proposed partnership
2. Description of activities
3. Description of outputs
4. Relevance of the partnership to joint activities and common areas of work of the TEC and CTCN outlines in the Joint Work Programme of the Technology Mechanism (2023-2027):	Digitalization National systems of innovation Water-Energy-Food systems Energy systems Building & resilient infrastructure Business & Industry Technology needs assessment & technology roadmaps Other (please specify)
5. Relevance of the partnership to the mission and work of the entity submitting this form
6. Envisaged duration of the partnership
7. Intended partnership focused on:	Supporting the work of the TEC through partnering with the UN Climate Change Secretariat (go to section 3 of this form) Supporting the work of the CTCN (go to section 4 of this form) Both

8. Other relevant information, including any regional/thematic focus and/or specific target stakeholder groups:
---	--

3. Supporting the work of the TEC through partnering with the UN Climate Change Secretariat

1. Address, to the extent possible and with supporting documentation, whether and how the interested entity meets each of the eligibility criteria set out in Partnerships with UNFCCC: At a Glance , indicating any relevant present and/or past activity or advocacy with regard to these criteria and list any net-zero commitments
2. Specify the type of intended partnership, to the extent possible with relevant examples from past experience, in line with the TEC strategy for collaborative partnerships: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Knowledge partnerships for developing quality products on climate technology, including through co-creation of outputs and contributing complementary areas of expertise. • Resource partnerships (financial, human, and in-kind resources) • Implementation partnerships, with regard to convening global dialogues, workshops and events of the TEC, including at the regional level. • Dissemination and outreach partnerships, broaden the reach to technology stakeholders across sectors and regions, including by utilizing existing networks, platforms and outlets. • Impact and legacy partnerships with influential entities and individuals in position to enhance the impact on the ground.

3. Address, to the extent possible and with supporting documentation, the capacity of the interested entity to enter into and implement the prospective partnership (including, if relevant, proof of juridical personality, proof of sound financial management and proof of technical capacities to carry out the partnership).
4. Confirm by a formal statement that the interested entity does not meet any of the exclusionary criteria of the UNFCCC secretariat, indicating any relevant present and/or past activity or advocacy with regard to these criteria.
5. Include a statement of its intention to fully comply with the terms of a partnership agreement to be agreed with the secretariat, as outlined in Partnerships with UNFCCC: At a Glance.
6. Indicate any requirements regarding the use of the UNFCCC name and logo in accordance with the section on logo use in Partnerships with UNFCCC: At a Glance.

4. Supporting the work of the CTCN

1. Address, to the extent possible and with supporting documentation, how this proposal aligns with your country's NDC or national climate strategies? Does the project address mitigation, adaptation, or both?
2. Describe which core technology is involved? Is it in early development, demonstration, or ready for deployment?

3. Who are the primary stakeholders and how will they be involved? Has your National Designated Entity (NDE) been consulted? National Designated Entities
4. Specify the type of intended partnership, to the extent possible with relevant examples from past experience, in line with the 2024 UNEP Partnership Strategy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Knowledge partnerships for developing quality products on climate technology, including through co-creation of outputs and contributing complementary areas of expertise. • Resource partnerships (financial, human, and in-kind resources) • Implementation partnerships, with regard to convening global dialogues, workshops and events of the TEC, including at the regional level. • Dissemination and outreach partnerships, broaden the reach to technology stakeholders across sectors and regions, including by utilizing existing networks, platforms and outlets. • Impact and legacy partnerships with influential entities and individuals in position to enhance the impact on the ground.
5. Address, to the extent possible and with supporting documentation, its capacity to enter into and implement the prospective partnership (including, if relevant, proof of juridical personality, proof of sound financial management and proof of technical capacities to carry out the partnership).
6. Confirm by a formal statement that it does not meet any of the exclusionary criteria of UNEP, indicating any relevant present and/or past activity or advocacy with regard to these criteria.

2. How to submit this form?

Clearly reference this call for proposal – include in the subject line of the email: UNFCCC Technology Mechanism Invitation for Partnerships

Entities interested in partnering with the UN Climate Change Secretariat to support the work of the TEC under this call for partnerships are invited to submit this form via email to tec@unfccc.int.

Entities interested in partnering with UNEP to support the work of the CTCN under this call for partnerships are invited to submit this form via email to ctcn@un.org.

3. Declaration

I certify that to the best of my knowledge the statements made within this form are true and correct.

I declare that I have the authorization to sign the Expression of Interest form on behalf my entity.

I understand that there is no automatic entitlement to any partnership agreement because of submitting this form.

I understand that information given by me will be treated in confidence but is subject to internal due diligence processes aligned with the UN System and the UN Global Compact policies and guidelines, for the purposes of assessing the eligibility and exclusionary criteria.

Signature:

Date: