

Introduction of agenda item 12

Communication of current experiences on means to incentivize the implementation of adaptation action

Presentation by Annett Möhner, UNFCCC secretariat

Fifth meeting of the Adaptation Committee

5 – 7 March 2014

Bonn, Germany

I: Background and context

---

- AC4 agreed to invite submissions by developed country Parties and bilateral, regional and other multilateral channels on current experience, including criteria, priorities, and other relevant information, on means to incentivize the implementation of adaptation actions, including finance, technology and capacity-building and other ways to enable climate-resilient development and reduce vulnerability.
- These submissions should be invited following the development of a template by the AC at AC5.
- This call for submissions will be followed by:
  - A scoping paper on a workshop on means of implementation
  - A synthesis paper on means of implementation
  - A workshop on means of implementation

II: Summary

The paper contains the following information:

- An overview on existing and upcoming information from developed country Parties and bilateral, regional and other multilateral channels on means of implementation.
- A discussion of
  - The desirability of issuing a call
  - Possible issues to be included in a call
  - Modalities for such a call.

III: Next steps

The AC may wish to:

- Consider the information in this document
- Decide on whether it would like to issue a call for submissions and if so, which information it wishes to receive and through which modalities
- Request AC member(s), with support of the secretariat, to develop a template, seek approval from the AC, and issue the call
