

DEFINING THE MISSING 'L' in M&E

Learning, Feedback and Sharing in Vanuatu Community-based Adaptation Program

“The Vanuatu NGO Climate Change Adaptation Program”

Rebecca Iaken
Alvin Chandra
Shirley Laban

What's different about this approach?

Increase the resilience of women, men and young people in Vanuatu to the impacts of climate change

- Consortium Approach
- Learning from Ni Vanuatu and people's perspective
- Gender, disability specific targets and indicators
- Positioning learning across different levels from community
- Vanuatu Climate Adaptation Network (VCAN)
- Community engagement/participation in program cycle
- One “Vanuatu” National Resilience Framework..

Learning Networks

VCAN

VANUATU CLIMATE ADAPTATION NETWORK

- Network of CSO working on CC programs within Vanuatu
- Organize joint workshop/training/event
- Share tools and best practices
- Consolidated approach to government process and consultation
- Formal/informal networking
- Builds relationships

Peer Monitoring

- Consortium members undertake monitoring of partners programs
- Encourages learning and opportunities for replication
- Key questions are used that links to the resilience framework
- Community engagement/ participation

Inclusive Engagement – Government and Civil Society Organization

- Civil society representation on National Advisory Board
- Joint information and consultation events with Vanuatu Climate Adaptation Network (VCAN) and Vanuatu Humanitarian Team (VHT)
- CC/DRR working Group
- Linking communities to national and international processes

Key Messages towards Resilience

- Community participation throughout the program cycle and reflections at multiple levels contributes to learning and builds resilience
- Draw on and build diverse sources of knowledge – traditional and scientific
- Participatory approaches with multiple stakeholders – joint reflection, joint analysis and peer-to-peer learning
- Learning to understand multiple shocks, stresses and hazards to avoid maladaptation
- Emphasis on addressing inequality/rights/structural causes

Taniko Tumas & Vinaka Vakalevu!

Further information:

iakenr@vanuatu.gov.vu

alvinc@oxfam.org.au

shirleyl@oxfam.org.au

