Workshop on EASD Swiss perspective

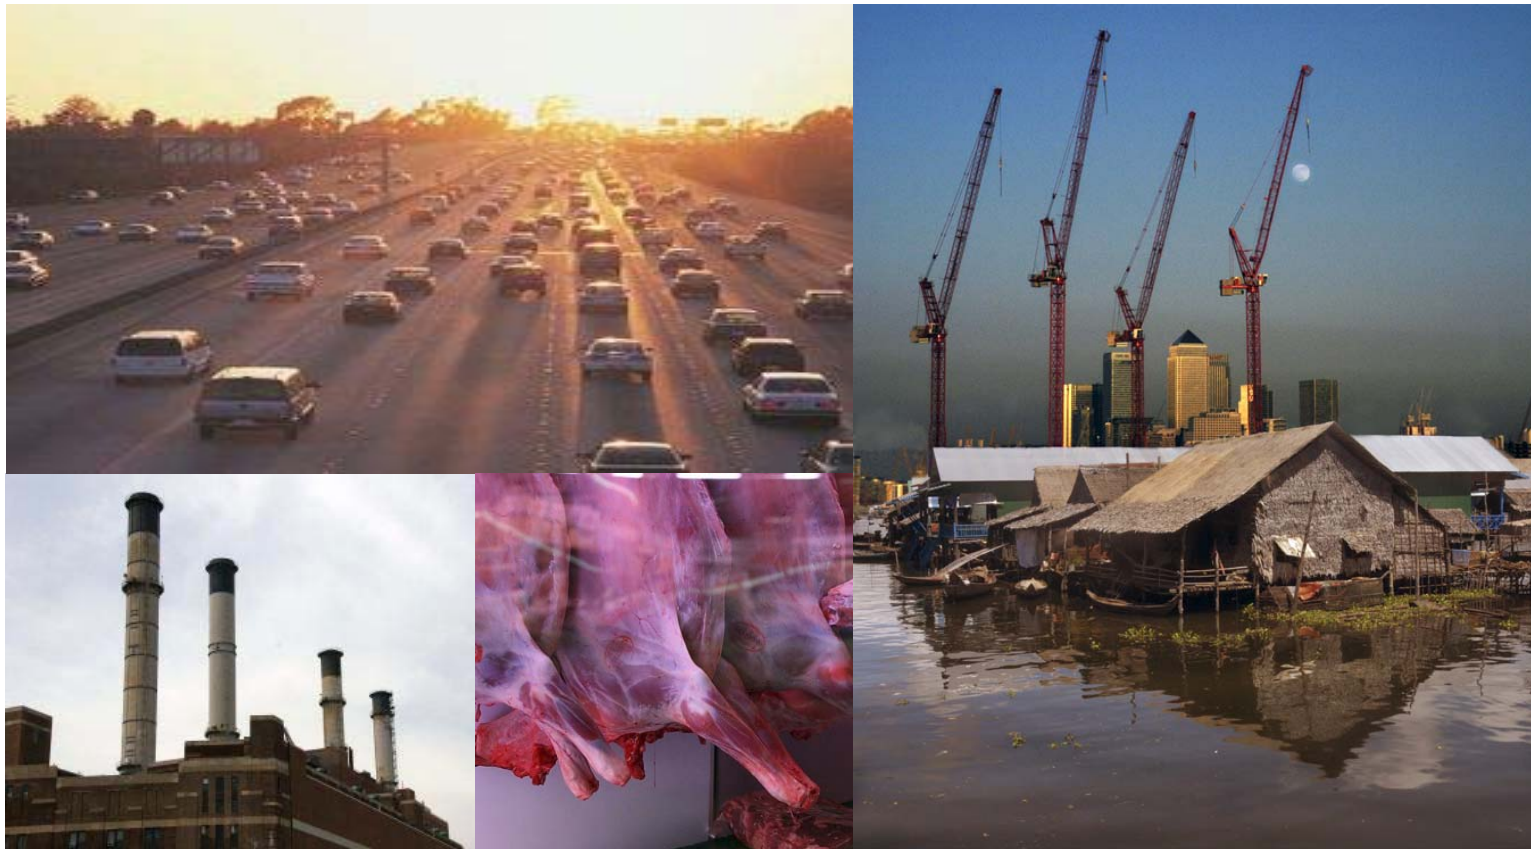

Amb. Franz Perrez, Head of the Swiss delegation

AWG-LCA 15, Bonn, 16 May 2012

Equitable Access to Sustainable Development (EASD)

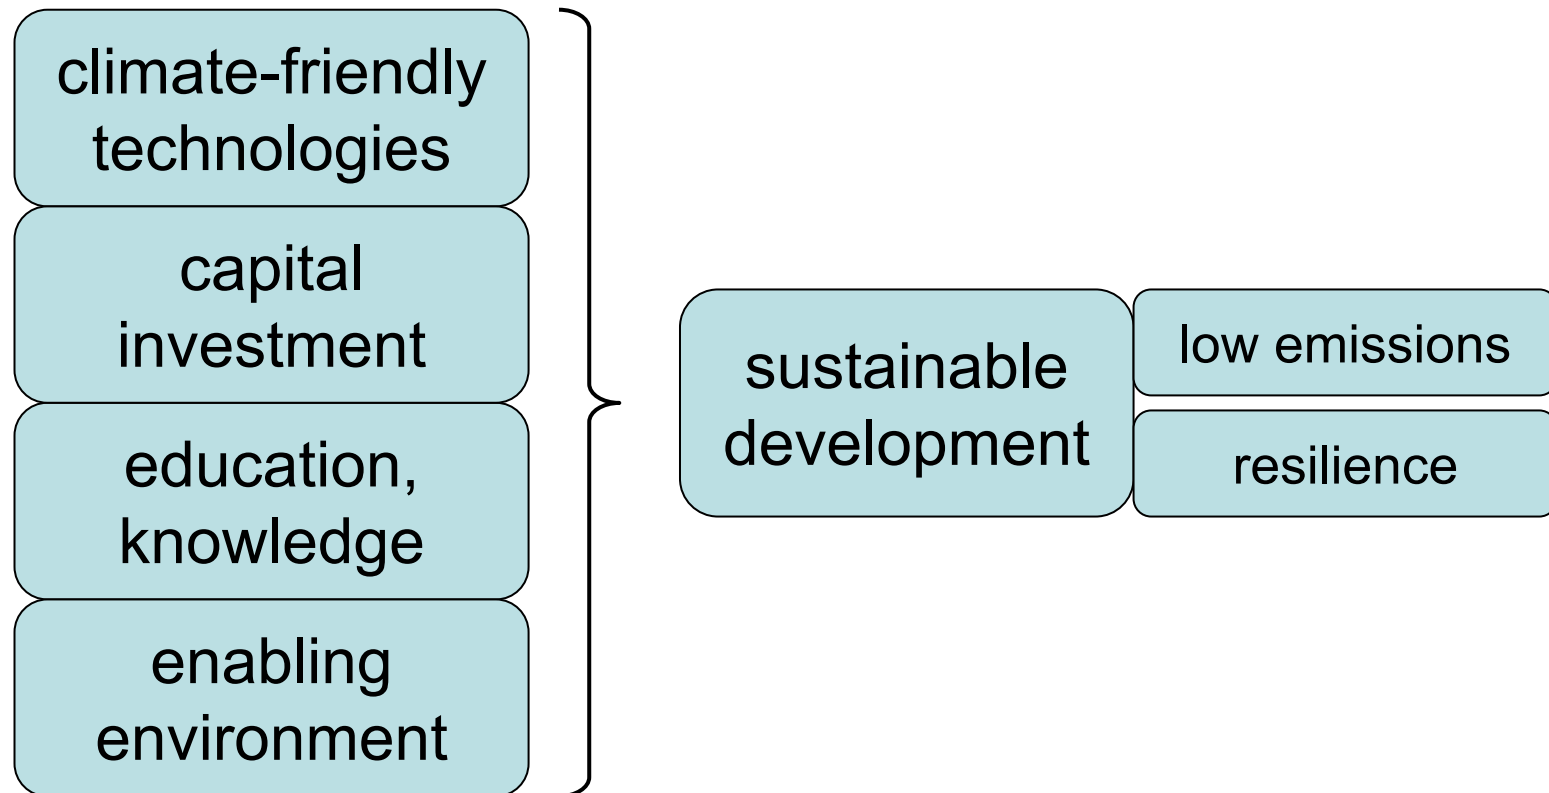

From a climate change perspective, sustainable development is a challenge for all Parties

Equitable Access to Sustainable Development (EASD)

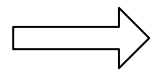

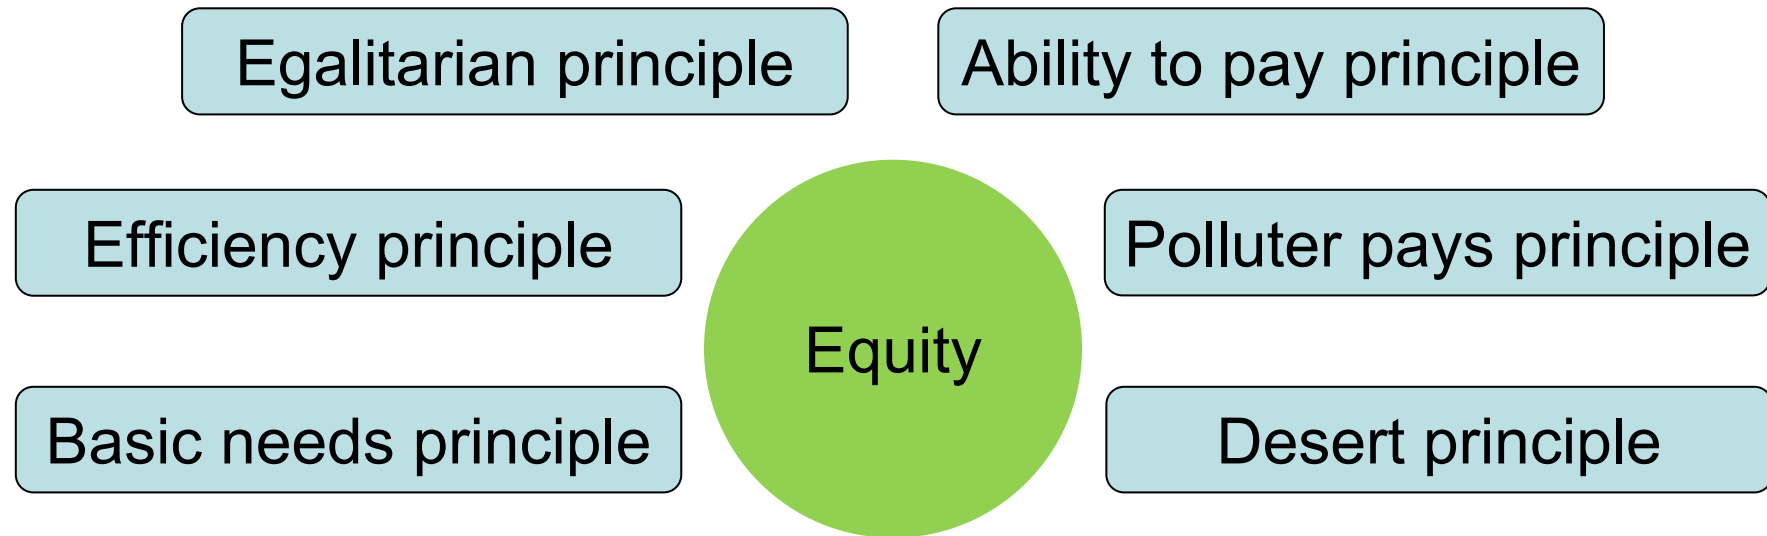

For sustainable development, emissions are less and less determinant (decoupling)

Equitable Access to Sustainable Development (EASD)

Various equity criteria exist

All principles merit consideration and, together, they lead to a refinement of efforts by Parties

Equitable Access to sustainable development (EASD)

At the end, equity will emerge from the negotiation process itself, in a differentiated form for mitigation, adaptation or support (equity-checks)
