

"Article 3.6: In the context of nationally-determined contributions, when recognising and implementing mitigation actions in respect of anthropogenic emissions and removals [including from land use [or REDD+]], Parties may draw from [/build on] existing methods and guidance under the UNFCCC and the IPCC."