

Meryem Andaloussi

Ms Meryem Andaloussi, currently Head of the Environment Service at the Agency for Agricultural Development in Morocco;

Having obtained, in 2010, the degree of Agro-economic Engineer from the Agronomy and Veterinary Institute Hassan II in Rabat, Morocco.

Having started the professional career in December 2010 the Agency for Agricultural Development as a project manager in the Department of Project Management.

In 2013, appointed responsible of the climate change issues in the Project Management Directorate. Currently (2016), she was appointed head of the Environment Service in the Agency for Agricultural Development.