

Youth Uniting for Climate Action Further, Faster, Together

YOUNG AND FUTURE GENERATIONS DAY

Thursday, 9 November 2017

Young and Future Generations Day is a non-stop celebration of youth power and participation. Youth-led side events, workshops and activities take place throughout the day, with a continuous stream of creative actions that prove young people are key players in reaching innovative and ambitious solutions to climate change.

Time/Location	Event	Organizer(s)
9:15—9:45 Talanoa Space, Bonn Zone	Opening of the Young and Future Generations Day The UNFCCC and the BMZ are welcoming youth from all over the world to promote the engagement of the future generation in combating climate change. This informal event will thus open the day for a series of youth-related events and will welcome various young climate activists and the stories of their activities on stage.	UNFCCC, German Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)
10:00—12:00 Malaysia Pavilion, Bonn Zone	Youth and Climate Change A group of young passionate Malaysians will represent the local youth climate movement. The Youth Forum consists of selected panelists who will share their thoughts on the role of youth in the struggle against climate change, how it affects their home and what is being done about it.	Malaysia Youth Delegation
11:30—12:00 Room 1, Bula Zone 3	Press Conference on Dialogue Process This press conference will showcase an innovative youth dialogue process which also includes Youth Ambassadors. As innovative communication methods are important for youth engagement, this event will illuminate on the characteristics of a successful and inclusive dialogues.	Mission Publiques

#COP23 #YFGD #YOUTHCOP #YOUNGO

11:30—13:00 Meeting Room 2, Bonn Zone	Youth Engagement in Climate Smart Agriculture: Opportunities and Challenges Globally, youth do not value agriculture as a good livelihood option, abandoning the countryside for urban areas. Climate Change adds difficulty and increases the risk of the sector. The Climate Smart Agriculture Youth Network (CSAYN) is changing youths' mindset, advocating climate smart agriculture to increase food production, reduce GHG emissions & enhance the sector's resilience to Climate Change.	Climate Smart Agriculture Youth Network (CSAYN)
12:00—12:45 Bonn Zone	High-Level Youth Briefing Annual event with the UNFCCC Executive Secretary for YOUNG delegates	UNFCCC
13:00—15:00 Korea Pavilion, Bonn Zone	Asian Youth Dialogue on the New Climate Regime and Youth Perspectives This side event is to share youths' perspectives on NDCs submitted to the UNFCCC and to encourage the governments' efforts on NDC implementation. There will be an introduction of the implementation policy of Republic of Korea, China, Japan and Taiwan, and the youths' opinions on the policies. Also, the event will address the roles and activities of youth regarding the policy.	Green Environment Youth Korea (GEYK), China Youth Climate Action Network (CYCAN), Climate Youth Japan (CYJ), Taiwan Youth Climate Coalition (TWYCC)
13:15—14:45 Meeting Room 2, Bonn Zone	The Intergenerational Inquiry Organized jointly by the UNFCCC and YOUNGO, the Intergenerational Inquiry aims to provide a platform for youth and decision-makers on how young people can enhance the implementation of the Paris Agreement and the Sustainable Development Goals. The results of COY 13 will also be presented.	UNFCCC
16:45—18:15 Meeting Room 2, Bonn Zone	Supporting youth-led innovation to confront climate change: opportunities for action Discussing the challenges of supporting young innovators in the implementation and scaling-up of climate-related solutions in business, charity, education and research; explore the concrete opportunities for action by all stakeholders on access to funding, access to expertise and visibility.	CliMates
18:00—19:45 Climate Action Studio, Bonn Zone	Closing - Youth Power the Planet: An Activate Talk As a celebratory conclusion to the Young and Future Generations Day, this talk will showcase the innovative and creative actions children and youth are taking to address climate change. Following a keynote address from H.E. Nazhat Khan, Fiji Permanent Representative to the UN, we invite COP23 attendees to enjoy an interactive discussion between young people who have used creative mediums and innovative means to raise awareness and take climate action.	UNICEF

More Information:

Adriana Valenzuela Jimenez

Focal Point for Youth and Education, UNFCCC

Email: youth@unfccc.int

www.unfccc.int/10405

