

Jyoti Mathur-Filipp

Jyoti Mathur-Filipp is an environmental governance expert with over 20 years of experience in sustainable development, environmental policy and climate finance.

She has been working on Reducing Emissions from Degradation and deforestation (REDD+) , specifically on the relationship with the private sector and on REDD+finance, for over seven years most recently with the government of Indonesia on the Norway-Indonesia partnership on REDD+.

Jyoti also has first hand experience with the operating entities of the UNFCCC's financial mechanism especially the Global Environment facility (GEF), Adaptation Fund and most recently with the Green Climate Fund (GCF).

