

Addressing vulnerability to climate change in LDCs

Date & time: Tuesday 10 May 2011, 08:30 to 10:00 am
Venue: Topkapi B, Lutfi Kirdar Convention & Exhibition Centre

The event will share information on the past, current and future mechanisms to support least developed countries (LDCs) in reducing their vulnerability to climate change. It will provide a platform for sharing experiences and lessons learned by the LDCs in implementing measures to reduce their vulnerability to climate change, and by the intergovernmental process in providing support to the LDCs.

The event is open to all persons taking part in the UN LDC-IV Conference.

The event will be conducted in English with simultaneous French translation.

Moderator:

Mr. Richard Kinley, Deputy Executive Secretary, UNFCCC Secretariat

Speakers:

H.E. Willy Telavi, Prime Minister, Tuvalu

H.E. Abdou Kolley, Minister of Trade, Industries, Regional Integration and Employment, The Gambia

H.E. Grain W.P. Malunga, Minister of Natural Resources, Energy and Environment, Malawi

Mr. Michel Jarraud, Secretary-General, World Meteorological Organization (WMO)

H.E. Mr. Collin Beck, Ambassador Extraordinary & Plenipotentiary Permanent Representative of Solomon Islands to the United Nations

Key topics:

Vulnerability to climate change in LDCs: The bigger picture

Support to LDCs in reducing vulnerability to climate change

Best Practices and Lessons Learned in addressing vulnerability to climate change in LDCs

Looking at 2011 and beyond: What is on the negotiations for LDCs and what needs to be done

Organized by:

UNFCCC Secretariat
Martin-Luther-King-Strasse 8, 53175 Bonn, Germany
Phone: (49-228) 815-1362, Fax: (49-228) 815-1999
Web: <http://unfccc.int/5963.php>
Contact: Mr. Paul Desanker, pdesanker@unfccc.int