

Agenda

Vision 50/50: Women for Action on Climate Change

Tuesday 19 November 2013, 11:30 to 13:00
National Stadium, Warsaw Room

This milestone event will bring together influential women leaders to envision a way forward to a sustainable future in which fully empowered women can be drivers of change. It will aim to inspire women, men, girls and boys, at all levels – from communities, to governments, to the private sector -, to bring forth a world transformed by concrete action on climate change.

Host

This key event at the UNFCCC Gender Day at COP 19 / CMP 9 will be hosted by Ms. Christiana Figueres, UNFCCC Executive Secretary.

High-level panel:

Ms. Hanna Gronkiewicz-Waltz, Mayor, City of Warsaw;
Ms. Bianca Jagger, Founder and Chair of the Bianca Jagger Human Rights Foundation;
Ms. Lakshmi Puri, Deputy Executive Director, UN Women;
Ms. Helen Clark, Administrator, United Nations Development Programme;
Ms. Mary Robinson, Former President of Ireland; President, Mary Robinson Foundation – Climate Justice;
Ms. Tarja Halonen, Former President of Finland;
Ms. Elizabeth Njoroge, Executive Director at The Art of Music Foundation, Singer.

Programme

- Interventions by panelists:
The panel will hold a conversation, sharing their views on a vision on women for action on climate change, to accelerate and deliver action on the transition towards a low-emission, high-resilient development path that benefits present and future generations.
- Floor discussion
- Wrap-up: Ms. Christiana Figueres

Highlights from the event will be posted on the UNFCCC website on the Gender and Climate Change webpage < <http://unfccc.int/7516> > and on the Ministerial Dialogues webpage < <http://unfccc.int/7896> >

Don't forget to wear your green ribbon on Gender Day!