

List of speakers and presentations

Theme I: Scientific, socio-economic, technical and methodological issues

Presenter	Organization/Party	Title
Ms Sandra Brown	Resource person	Overview of scientific, socio-economic, technical and methodological issues
Mr. Richard Houghton	The Woods Hole Research Institute, United States of America	The role of forests in the global carbon cycle
Mr. Niro Higuchi	Instituto Nacional de Pesquisa da Amazonia (INPA), Brazil	INPA's approach to estimate changes in carbon stocks and related uncertainties
Mr. Wulf Killmann	Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations	Definitional issues
Mr. Peter Holmgren	Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations	Data availability and quality
Mr. Frédéric Achard	European Commission, Joint Research Centre, Ispra, Italy	Remote sensing and data availability
Mr. Eric Lambin	University of Louvain, Belgium	Causes and pathways of tropical deforestation

Theme II: Policy approaches and positive incentives to reduce emissions from deforestation in developing countries – basing discussions on experiences and lessons learned

Presenter	Organization/Party	Title
Mr. Claudio Forner	Resource person	Deforestation in developing countries
Mr. Ian Fry	Tuvalu	Review of oceania regional workshop report on the underlying causes of deforestation and forest degradation and its implications for carbon accounting
Ms Andrea Garcia	Colombia	Deforestation in Latin America
Ms Aline Malibangar	Congo Basin Countries	A dynamic regional policy approach the COMIFAC
Mr. John Hudson	United Kingdom	Deforestation – Why it happens and what to do about it
Mr. Reinhard Wolf	Germany	German bilateral cooperation on sustainable forest management
Mr. Erik Streed	United States of America	Avoiding deforestation: US lessons learned on the ground
Ms Lera Miles	UNEP World Conservation Monitoring Centre	Forest biodiversity assessment and protection: Experience in collaboration and opportunities for multiple benefits
Mr. Amha bin Buang	International Tropical Timber Organization	In support of tropical timber and forest the ITTO's experience
Ms Gisela Ulloa	Bolivia	Bolivia's experience on forest management and emissions avoidance
Mr. Samsudin Musa	Malaysia	Addressing Deforestation and Degradation through Sustainable Forest Management in Malaysia
Mr. Satoshi Akahori	Japan	Japan's contribution to promoting sustainable management of the world's forests
Mr. Warilea Iamo	Papua New Guinea	Reducing emissions from deforestation in developing countries
Mr. Ricardo Ulate	Costa Rica	Costa Rica: Environmental services payment as a policy tool to avoid deforestation and promote forest recovery
Mr. Joao Paulo Ribeiro Copabianco	Brazil	Positive incentives to reduce deforestation emissions in developing countries: Views from Brazil