

LOGISTICAL INFORMATION

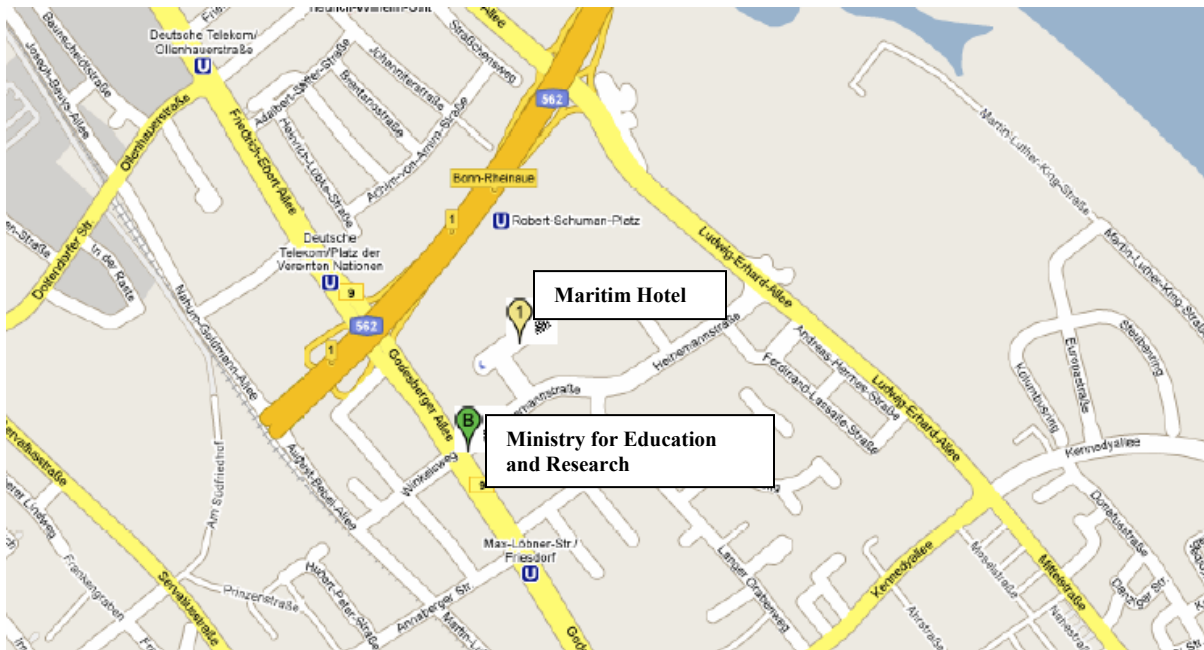

Expert Meeting on Methodological Issues relating to Reference Emission Levels and Reference Levels 23 and 24 March 2009 in Bonn, Germany

Meeting Venue

Bundesministerium für Bildung und Forschung
(Federal Ministry for Education and Research)
Heinemannstr. 2
53175 Bonn

How to get there

From Bonn train station take the tram (U-Bahn) no. 16 or 63 direction Bad Godesberg and get off at “Max-Löbner-Strasse/Friedsorf” or take no. 66 direction Bad Honnef and get off at “Robert-Schumann-Platz”.

Entry to the Ministry of Education and Research

All visitors must present their passports to security before entering the premises. Participants will receive a visitor's badge to the building at the security point at the entrance.

Hotels

You may wish to make your hotel reservations through the following link:

<http://www.carisma-engine.de/Search/Hotel/searchBHotel.asp>

Arrival and Transport

From Cologne/Bonn Airport

Bus No. 670 runs from Cologne Airport to the Bonn Central station and takes approximately 35 minutes. Buses run every 30 minutes Monday to Saturday, and hourly on Sundays.

Should you wish to take a taxi from the Cologne/Bonn Airport, please look for the signs directing you to the taxi stand just outside the airport terminal. The taxi fare from the airport to Bonn is approximately EUR 40.00

From Frankfurt Airport

After having arrived in Frankfurt airport follow the signs to “Fernbahnhof” which is the station for long-distance trains. Although the station is in the airport, it is approximately a 10-minute walk. Trains to Bonn normally leave from platform 6 or 7, with final destinations in the North such as Hamburg, Berlin, and Leipzig. Please check with the staff at the information desk in the Frankfurt Deutsche Bahn station.

The InterCity Express (ICE) train runs from Frankfurt Airport to Bonn’s main train station in the city center (or to Siegburg/Bonn). The trip takes approximately 1 hour and 40 minutes. Trains run every hour between 6:57 and 22:05. The ride to Siegburg takes about 40 minutes. On getting off at Siegburg train station, you can either take a U-Bahn No.66 into Bonn central station (normally the Deutsche Bahn ticket includes this city ride but you should check if this is indicated in your train ticket) or a taxi into Bonn to your hotel.