

Towards the implementation of the Technology Mechanism

Climate Technology Centre and Network: Selection process and criteria for evaluation

Bangkok , 4th April 2011

- EU objective: working towards making the Technology Mechanism operational in 2012; Reach a decision in Durban / COP 17- as part of a balanced, coherent and effective package

- What are the key considerations when selecting the most appropriate institutions?
- What are the key competences and capabilities required?

Process for the selection of a host to the CTC

Process should be open, transparent fair and neutral

Host should present inter alia

- Interpretation of functions in accordance with Cancun Agreements
- Willingness to host
- Organisational structure with management, team members and methodological approaches
- Demonstration of expertise and knowledge of technology processes
- Involvement with the private sector
- Cost estimates

CTC: competences and capabilities

Competences and capabilities should be in line with the Terms of reference of the CTC, in particular with its objectives and tasks;

Preference for an intergovernmental institution in the UN system

Project understanding must be demonstrated, in particular, in relation to advice and support in the development, dissemination and transfer of Environmentally Sound Technologies, participation in international technology partnerships, knowledge and/or participation in elaboration of best practices for country-driven planning

Years of experience and competences in the field should be considered in the selection.