Where do I register to get my badge?

Parties and observers may register and have their photos taken at the Registration and Press Accreditation Counters located at the entrance of the Hotel Maritim.

Only registered participants wearing badges are allowed access to the conference area.

Badges are issued to representatives of Parties or observer organizations on the basis of a letter of nomination from Parties or Observer organizations. Staff badges from other United Nations bodies, including those in New York, Geneva and Nairobi are recognized.

Press badges are issued to previously accredited press based on the presentation of a valid national press card and two photo identification documents (e.g. passport, driver's licence, national ID card, work identity cards) or a photo press card from the United Nations in New York, Geneva, Vienna or Nairobi. Press badges allow access to all public meetings and sessions unless otherwise indicated for security reasons.

Double registration for the sessions is not permitted (e.g., simultaneously as a Party and observer organization, or simultaneously as a Party and press/media representative).

Opening hours and contact information

Monday, 14 June–Tuesday, 15 June
9 a.m.–6 p.m.

Wednesday, 16 June–Friday, 25 June

Where can I find information about climate change and the secretariat?

The Climate Change Kiosk is located in the foyer. It provides information about climate change and the secretariat. It is a resource for anyone interested in:

- Climate change information sources
- Background information on the climate change process and the secretariat
- Who's doing what in the process
- Who's doing what in the secretariat
- How to contact members of the secretariat
- How to obtain access to, or copies of, secretariat information products (i.e. Convention and the Kyoto Protocol) or services

The Climate Change Kiosk includes display panels as well as a computer with an Internet connection, which will be used in providing assistance on how to:

- Find relevant climate change information using the UNFCCC Library online
- Effectively search and retrieve climate-change-related information from the web
- Evaluate the quality of web-based information
- Locate other sources of climate change information

Participants who need assistance in obtaining information related to any of these issues are invited to contact the staff at the Climate Change Kiosk:

Ms. Sharon Taylor
Mr. Ronald de la Cruz

COME FOR A TEST DRIVE!

Everyone is welcome to join in these hands-on sessions featuring the secretariat's multi-volume CD-ROM collection containing all official documentation issued since 1991 as part of the Convention and Kyoto Protocol processes. As well as full text of all documents in all available United Nations languages, the CD-ROMs contain: interpretative guides, national communications on greenhouse gas emissions trends and policy responses, in-depth reviews of national communications, daily programmes, lists of participants and agendas of all UNFCCC meetings.

If it is not easy for you to access UNFCCC documents through the Internet, this is your solution. Rapidly find documents searching by:

Date	Documents symbol	Title	Keyword	Meeting	Decision
------	------------------	-------	---------	---------	----------

One-hour sessions are held on the following dates

Tuesday, 22 June
2–3 p.m. (English)
3–4 p.m. (Spanish)
4–5 p.m. (French)

Wednesday, 23 June
2–3 p.m. (Spanish)
3–4 p.m. (French)
4–5 p.m. (English)

Sign up at the Climate Change Kiosk for the language session of your choice.

Will there be any social events during SB 20?

The City of Bonn and the German Federal Ministry of the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety will host a buffet reception to welcome participants to SB 20 on Wednesday, 16 June 2004, 7 p.m. at the Old City Hall of Bonn. All participants are cordially invited to attend.

Where can I find information on COP 10?

The COP 10 Information Desk is to be found on the ground floor foyer. The Secretary of Tourism and the Secretary of Environment of the City of Buenos Aires provides tourist and hotel information for COP 10. Due to the great demand for hotel rooms, participants are advised to visit the COP 10 Information Desk.

Where can I find information about Bonn?

The Bonn Tourism Counter (Tourismus- & Congress) is located beside the Registration Counter. They have information on hotel reservations, local transportation, train and air travel, as well as tourist information about Bonn and Germany. In addition, the Bonn Tourism Counter sells public transport tickets at a favourable rate.

Opening hours and contact information

Wednesday, 16 June–Friday, 25 June
9 a.m.–6 p.m.

Saturday, 19 June
10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Tel.: +49 (0228) 308 996 18

Please note that participants who book their hotel with Tourismus- & Congress will receive free airport transfer and public transport tickets during their stay in Bonn.

Where can I eat within and around the area?

The “Rôtisserie” (restaurant), “Brasserie” (café) and “Piano Bar” are found in the entrance, near La Marée. In addition, a coffee/snack bar is located beside Plenary 2.

Cafeterias are available in government offices (e.g. Ministry of Environment, Ministry of Transport, etc.) surrounding the Hotel Maritim.

Where can I locate my consignment?

Please contact our shipment focal points or visit them at the Information Counter.
