INTERPRETATION

The language most frequently used is English, but interventions during the plenary sessions can be made in any of the six UN languages.

Interpretation facilities for the six UN languages will be provided during the plenary sessions only. No other meetings will receive interpretation services from the UN. Press Conference Room has interpretation booths for two any languages, but delegations need to bring their own interpreters.

accommodation

(AS OF 30 JULY 2007)

A number of hotels in Bali have been selected Official Hotels for UN Climate Change Conference 2007, to accommodate the participants. These hotels vary from 5-star to 3-star categories, located in Nusa Dua, Tanjung Benoa, Jimbaran, Kuta, Tuban, Seminyak and Sanur Area.

Reservation and payment for accommodation shall be directed to these hotels and copy to Indonesia Secretariat Office (see page 2). A guaranteed credit card is required by hotel for reservation. Being the number of rooms at these special rates limited, a first come and first served basis policy will apply.

The room rates are inclusive of 21% government tax & services and daily buffet breakfast. Should there be any changes in the percentage, it will be reflected to the rates.

Note : ■ Ngurah Rai International Airport, referred to as 'Denpasar' or 'DPS' on air tickets, serves all international and domestic flights.

■ The above information is intended to assist participants with their travel arrangement for attending the Conference. Be sure to check those airlines operating from your location to any of the regional hubs listed. Many airlines have preferential prorated agreements in place with airlines that operate connecting flights to Bali. These agreements often offer both excellent connections and rates are among the most competitive on the market.

general information

INDONESIA

Situated between two continents and two oceans, the Indian and Pacific oceans, Indonesia is the world's largest archipelago comprising some 17,508 islands that stretch across the equator for more than 5,000 miles. Straddling the equator, Indonesia is distinctly tropical with two seasons: dry and rainy season. With its geographical location in South East Asia, Indonesia is accessible for delegates regardless of the region they are from. Being the 4th biggest population in the world with nearly 88% of its 220 million citizens of the Muslim faith, peace-loving Indonesia welcomes the opportunity to host the UN Climate Change Conference 2007. Indonesia is also a melting pot different communities, benefiting from centuries of peaceful coexistence.

Indonesia is great place to visit, as it offers superb natural beauty, cultural, artistic wealth, and warm hospitality. The diversity and authenticity of cultures, arts, as well as flora and fauna represents the precious treasures that can be found throughout different parts of Indonesia.

BALI

Bali is located just off the eastern tip of Java, from which it is separated by the Bali Strait. On its north and south side, the island is flanked by the Java Sea and the Indian Ocean, respectively. The island occupies an area of approximately 6,000 square kilometers and lies on a latitude of 8° south of the equator, having population of around 3.5 million. Bali is one of Indonesia's provinces, with Denpasar as provincial capital.

Endowed with great natural beauty and rich culture has made Bali globally known as an island of paradise. Bali's spectacular beaches, volcanoes, lakes, temples, and terraced rice fields -- combined with its deeply artistic roots and its legendary hospitality -- have made it one of the most visited places on earth. The religion and culture of Bali are unique in the world, and the Balinese have preserved their traditions in spite of the island's growing tourist industry. Bali International Airport, Ngurah Rai, is the nation's eastern gateway, served by numerous international airlines and charter flights.

BALI INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION CENTRE (BICC)

The UN Climate Change Conference 2007 will be held at Bali International Convention Centre (BICC). BICC is situated in the self-contained resort area of Nusa Dua, which is just 10 km from the Ngurah Rai International Airport. It is also connected through an air-conditioned shopping arcade with The Westin Resort (the main venue hotel) and surrounded by some of Bali's finest five-star hotels and resorts (Ayodya Resort, Inna Putri Bali, Grand Hyatt, Melia Bali, The Laguna Resort & Spa, and Nusa Dua Beach Hotel & Spa), and within walking distance of fantastic shopping, entertainment, restaurants, a championship golf course and a host of other recreational facilities.

The Convention Centre features a main hall which seats 2,500 and an auditorium seating 506. Eight additional function rooms, four of which divide, provide meeting space of totally 3,490 square meters. Some of the Centre's outstanding capabilities include a fully integrated satellite, telecommunications and media systems, professional in-house staging, simultaneous multi-language translation and state-of-the-art audio visual and presentation facilities.

Exhibition Halls of the Convention Centre boasts of total of almost 5,000 square meters of exhibition space with excellent vehicle access. There are two interiors areas of 1,350 square meters each and 2,000 square meters of outdoor exhibition space. An exclusive bonded warehouse or bond store expedites transport, customs clearance and security of all exhibition/convention commodities.

AIR TRANSPORTATION

Air transport is the easiest and comfortable means of travel to Indonesia. A number of carriers offer international direct flight to Bali and many of the world's major carriers connect Bali via regional air hubs in Jakarta, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Seoul, Sydney, Guam and Taipei.

International airlines serving Bali include Garuda Indonesia the national flag carrier (Jakarta, Darwin, Melbourne/Sydney, Perth, Osaka, Tokyo, Seoul, Singapore), Air Asia (Kuala Lumpur), Singapore Airlines, Malaysian Airlines (Kuala Lumpur), Royal Brunei (Bandar Sri Begawan), Korean Airlines (Seoul), Thai Airways (Bangkok), Japan Airlines (Osaka, Tokyo), Cathay Pacific (Hong Kong), China Airlines (Taipei), Qantas Airways (Darwin, Melbourne, Perth, Sydney, Singapore), Continental Micronesia (Guam).

Many domestic airlines flying to Bali frequently on daily basis include Garuda Indonesia (the most frequent one), Lion Air, Batavia Air, Adam Air, Merpati Nusantara, Mandala Airlines, and many more.

International airlines representatives available in Bali are Air New Zealand, Cathay Pacific Airlines, China Airlines, Continental Micronesia, Eva Air, Garuda Indonesia,

general information

Japan Airlines, Malaysia Airlines, Merpati Nusantara, Qantas Airways, Royal Brunei, Singapore Airlines and Thai Airways International. Most of these airlines offices are located in Bali's Ngurah Rai International Airport and Denpasar.

AIRPORT DEPARTURE TAX

An airport tax of 100,000 Rupiah (equiv. USD 11) is imposed for travellers on international routes and 30,000 Rupiah for those on domestic routes. Airport tax is payable after check-in at airport.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION

Transportation in Bali is always cheap by any standard. The taxis start with flag fall of 5,000 Rupiah or around USD 50 cents, followed by 4,000 Rupiah/kilometer. From airport to the conference venue in Nusa Dua, it will cost at around 70,000 Rupiah (equiv. USD 8); whereas from Nusa Dua area to Kuta or Legian area will cost at around 80,000 Rupiah. It is advisable to carry small change as taxi drivers are often short of change.

Taxis are operated from all major hotels and the airport with rate varying according to the destination. Some of airport taxis Golden Bird, Ngurah Rai Taxi, Kowinu, etc. At all major airport terminals, inquiries about local transportation should be directed to the information counter. Furthermore, car and motorcycle rentals are also available in Bali at negotiable rates.

LIVING COST

Cost of living in Bali is reasonable. For three times of daily meals (incl. food and drink) at local restaurants will cost at around USD 15 to USD 20 per person. Food and drink at better hotels cost about the same as in the same category of hotel anywhere else in the world. Breakfast is USD 8 to USD 30, lunch and dinner USD 20 to USD 70 or more per person – and that does not include any wine which can be very expensive. On the other hand, restaurants outside the large hotels are often 60% to 80% cheaper.

CUSTOMS

Customs allow on entry at maximum of one liter of alcoholic beverages, 200 cigarettes or 50 cigars 100 grams of tobacco and a reasonable amount of perfume per adult. Cameras, video cameras, portable radios, cassette recorders, binoculars and sport equipment are admitted provided they are taken out on departure. They must be declared to Customs.

Prohibited are firearms, narcotic drugs, pornography, transreceivers and cordless telephones. Films, pre-recorded video tapes and laser disks must be screened by the Censor Board.

While there is no restriction on the amount of foreign currency that may be brought into Indonesia, those who bring into the country currency worth more than 100 million Rupiah must be declared to customs upon arrival at the first port of entry.

general information

CLIMATE

Bali enjoys warm, tropical weather all year. Temperatures average is between 21° to 33°C (68° to 93°F) year round. In the mountains, however, it can go as low as 5°C at night. Humidity varies between 60% and 100%. In general, Bali experiences two seasons: moist and wet. The dry season is normally from May to October, whereas the rainy season is normally from November to April, during which it can rain for several hours each day. The rain tends to be intermittent, however, with plenty of sun in between. There is comparatively little difference between the daytime and night time temperatures. All conference sessions will be held in air-conditioned venues.

TIME ZONE

Bali is in the Central Indonesian Time zone, which is GMT+8 hours.

LANGUAGE

Bahasa Indonesia is the national language, but English is widely spoken and understood.

CURRENCY

The Indonesian currency is Rupiah (IDR). The currency exchange is approximately USD 1 = IDR 9,175. Most foreign currencies are easily changed at airports, banks, hotels or money changers. The currency exchange rate fluctuates regularly. Check you bank for the latest exchange rates. Banking hours are from 08.00 am to 14.00 noon Mondays to Fridays, and from 08.00 am to 11.00 am on Saturdays. Bank in hotels usually stay open longer hours while money changers are generally open till evening. ATM is available in many places, provides VISA, MASTER, ALTO and more.

TRAVELERS' CHECKS & CREDIT CARDS

Travelers' checks are accepted by leading banks and hotels in principal cities, including Bali. The use of travelers' checks in Indonesia is as popular as in any other countries. Diners Club and American Express, Visa and MasterCard are widely accepted at hotels, department stores, shops, restaurants and pubs. According to Indonesian banking regulations, payment by credit cards should be charged in local currency.

ELECTRIC CURRENT

The electric current in use throughout Indonesia is 220-230 volts at 50Hz. Most hotels can provide Transformers and adapters.

general information

BUSINESS HOURS

Business and government offices are open either from 08.00 am to 04.00 pm or 09.00 to 05.00 pm from Monday to Friday.

CLOTHING

Dress is normally casual and light clothing is advisable due to the hot, humid climate. Trousers or slack and shirts are generally considered appropriate but a jacket and tie are required for formal occasions when making official calls. For certain formal occasions, long-sleeved batik shirts are acceptable. For travel to mountain areas, a light sweater or jacket is recommended. Halter tops and shorts are frowned upon in most places except around sport facilities or on the beach, proper decorum should especially be observed when visiting places or worship.

GRATUITIES

Tipping is not encouraged in hotels and restaurants if 10% service is already included in a bill. Extra tips from satisfied customers are for encouragement. At most hotels a service charge of 10% is added to the bills. An airport porter expects 15,000 Rupiah per bag.

SHOPPING

The major cities have shopping complexes, supermarkets and department stores where prices are fixed. They start open from 09.00 am to 09.00 pm everyday and some even on Sunday. At small shops bargaining might be necessary.

Bali has various shopping spots. Main tourist roads are often lined with shops and stalls selling crafts of all types. Ubud (25 km North of Denpasar) and the surrounding villages of Pengosekan, Mas and Batuan are breeding grounds for arts, ranging from 'wayang style' paintings, polished woodcarving and antiques to traditional Balinese carvings made from volcanic purnice. For those who do not like to wander too much from the beach, Kuta and Legian have more modern shopping areas.

SIGHTSEEING

Places of interest in Bali include Ubud, Bangli, Batubulan, Bedugul, Besakih, Celuk, Denpasar, Goa Gajah, Goa Lawah, Jimbaran Bay, Lovina, Kintamani, Klungkung, Kuta & Legian, Mas, Menjangan Island, Nusa Dua, Peliatan, Sangeh, Sanur, Tampak Siring, Tanah Lot, Tenganan, Trunyan, Yeh Saneh, Sanur Beach.

Tanah Lot, The Unforgettable Bali

USD 25/person, Duration: 6 hrs

The monkeys are the peaceful temple guardians in Alas Kedaton forest, while the lotus ponds surround Mengwi Royal Temple. Both places are well worth a visit, en route to the unforgettable Tanah Lot Temple, nestled on a rock on the Indian Ocean. An absolute must-see!

Kecak Dance at Uluwatu Temple with Beachside Dinner

USD 36/person, Duration: 6 hrs

Hanging on a cliff 100 meters above the ocean, Uluwatu temple is a unique sight. The more so while you see the Kecak Dance, performed by about 50 singers. As a matter of fact, this dance is the only one based on vocals rather than instrument, dating far back into Balinese history, prior to the use of instruments. After the performance, a short drive will bring you to Jimbaran bay to enjoy a delicious seafood dinner in a cozy seaside restaurant.

Ubud between Tradition and Art

USD 25/person, Duration: 6 hrs

The eternal fight between good and evil is the central theme in Barong and Keris dance, a performance not to be missed. A visit to a traditional Balinese compound will bring you back in time, while the art villages of Mas, Ubud and Celuk are a showcase of Balinese skills in handicraft, painting and creating gold and silver jewelry.

Bedugul, The Land of Spices

USD 30/person, Duration: 9 hrs

First stop at Mengwi Royal Temple with its lotus pond from where you will reach the peaceful mountain village of Bedugul, to visit Ulun Danu temple, partially submerged in Lake Beratan water. After visiting the colorful Candikuning market with its spices, bonsai and orchid lined along fresh vegetables, the next stop will be the unforgettable rice terraces of Jatiluwih, a truly heavenly panorama.

Cruise to Lembongan Island

USD 56/person, Duration: 9 hrs

Awaken your senses on Sail Sensations, Bali's premier sailing catamaran, for an exciting journey to Nusa Lembongan, small island off the eastern shore. Pristine beaches and unspoiled natural beauty make it the perfect destination for an unforgettable holiday excursion. Insurance by supplier up to USD 4,000!
