

Consignments

Consignments

Consignments should be delivered to the conference venue, not before 19 August 2008 at the address below:

Accra International Conference Center (AICC).
Accra Climate Change Talks
Castle Road
Accra, Ghana

Information

- To facilitate customs clearance, all consignments should be clearly labelled as “non-commercial goods for education and training purposes only”.
- To facilitate tracking the receivee, the sender organization, recipient/responsible person, telephone number or e-mail address should be clearly visible on the consignment.
- To facilitate re-export of any consignment which has been temporarily imported, the organizer should send a detailed packing list with the consignment.

Labels will be sent to all organizers of side events and exhibits. Further labels for participants may be obtained on request by contacting the observer organizations liaison team (alutz@unfccc.int)

Customs clearance

The Government of Ghana has advised that consignments will need the assistance of a customs clearance agent at the point of entry to facilitate customs clearance. Agents would charge fees at commercial rates for their services.

For those organizers who do not have a customs clearing agent, the Government of Ghana has provided the following contact:
