

MEDIA ADVISORY

For November 17, 2016

CIVIL SOCIETY BID UN SECRETARY-GENERAL BAN KI MOON FAREWELL

Marrakech, Morocco - Civil society are organizing a farewell ceremony for the UN Secretary-General Ban Ki Moon who leaves office at the end of the year with a strong legacy of supporting the climate process and observers' engagement in the talks.

Civil society organizations, represented by the various UNFCCC observer constituencies including environmental organizations, youth, indigenous people, gender groups, businesses, local governments and authorities, trade unions will show their gratitude for the Secretary-General's support of their engagement. They will also welcome him in the civil society movement that is moving forward towards a safe and a renewable energy future, prevailing over all obstacles.

What: Farewell to the Secretary-General as he leaves office and welcoming him in the civil society movement going forward in the fight against climate change and leaping over all obstacles

Where: UNFCCC Side Events Hall E- Atlantic Room, Marrakech (Blue Zone – Accreditation Required)

When: 9AM GMT/local time, Thursday November 17, 2016

Who: Secretary-General Ban Ki Moon, representatives of environmental organizations, businesses, local governments and authorities, youth and group groups, gender groups, indigenous people, farmers and trade unions.

For more information, contact:

Hala Kilani

Senior Communications Officer campaigns - Climate Action Network

Email: hkilani@climatenetwork.org

Tel: +961 3 567928

Local Phone: +212 6 53 77 86 95

Mark Raven

Communications coordinator

Email: Markraven00@gmail.com

Tel: +905414145425 / +447841474125

###