Registration

Where do I get my badge?

Parties, observers and press can register and have their photos taken for badges at the Registration Counter located at the entrance of the Hotel Maritim.

Badges are issued to representatives of Parties or observer organizations on the basis of a letter of nomination from Parties or observer organizations.

Press badges are issued to accredited press representatives on presentation of a valid national press card, a letter of assignment and two photo identification documents (e.g. passport, driver's licence, national ID card, work identity card) or a photo press card from the United Nations in Geneva, Nairobi, New York or Vienna. Press badges allow access to all public meetings and sessions unless indicated otherwise or for security reasons.

Double registration for the informal meetings (e.g. simultaneously as a nominee of a Party and of an observer organization, or simultaneously as a nominee of a Party and as a press representative) is not permitted.

Hours and contact information

Saturday, 31 July to Sunday, 1 August
09.00–18.00

Monday, 2 August to Friday, 6 August

Fax: +49 228 5368 4697

Enjoy using the UNFCCC lanyard for your badge. Please keep it for use at your next UNFCCC meeting. If you would like to update your badge photo, please ask at the Registration Counter.

How can I correct an entry in the list of participants?

Please take your comments and corrections to Hedwig Sandoval at the Registration Counter.

Please note that access to the conference area is restricted to registered participants of the meetings. In order to comply with the security requirements of the secretariat, participants are expected to wear their badges at all times and in all areas. Lost badges should be reported to the Registration Counter immediately.

Disclaimer: The United Nations and the Convention secretariat disclaim all responsibility for medical, accident and travel insurance, for compensation for death or disability, for loss of or damage to personal property and for any other costs or losses that may be incurred during travel time or the period of participation. In this context, it is strongly recommended that you obtain international medical insurance for the period of participation.

General information

The Information Counter, located at the entrance of the Hotel Maritim, to the right-hand side, provides information about the meetings and the venues. In addition, copy cards for using the photocopiers may be purchased here.

Documents

Where do I get the Daily Programme and official documents?

The Daily Programme is available at the Documents Counter, located in the foyer of the Hotel Maritim, and on the UNFCCC website at:

<http://unfccc.int/conference_programme/items/5660.php>

The Daily Programme provides detailed information on all scheduled meetings of the AWG-KP and the AWG-LCA, meetings of other groups, side events and other announcements.

Information in the Daily Programme is subject to change. For the most recent information regarding meetings and rooms, please check the CCTV monitors located inside the Hotel Maritim. This information may also be found on the UNFCCC website <www.unfccc.int>.

In addition to the Daily Programme, all official documents and the list of participants are available at the Documents Counter. UNFCCC documents are also available on the UNFCCC website or by e-mail upon request to: <secretariat@unfccc.int>.

Pigeonholes for Parties and intergovernmental organizations are located adjacent to the Documents Counter.

Where can I distribute documents?

Publications clearly attributed to a Party or an admitted observer organization can be distributed and displayed at the 'Climate Change Publications Counter' after approval, located in the foyer of the Hotel Maritim.

Please provide a sample to the Observer Organizations Liaison team located at the office of the Conference Affairs Services in La Marée. The counter cannot manage large volumes, but will assist in changing the range of documents. Organizers of exhibits are requested to display and distribute documents at their exhibit booths. Side Event advertisements and invitations can be posted on the notice boards located opposite of the Information Counter.

Documents deposited elsewhere or not attributed will be removed.

Sustainable Bonn addresses participants

Looking for greener options?

Dear Participants of the AWG August sessions,

You have come to Bonn to negotiate further steps towards a binding climate agreement. In Germany's United Nations City, 39 Partners of Sustainable Bonn extend a warm welcome to you! Hotels, Caterers, Conference Centers (including your conference venue Maritim Hotel), our youth hostel and even museums. These businesses share your commitment to sustainability and they would like to offer you smart and sustainable options – from energy efficient heating to fairtrade and regional food.

Sustainable Bonn is proud to be a project of the UN Decade on Education for Sustainable Development 2007. More information is available for download on www.sustainable-bonn.de

The Partners of Sustainable Bonn are looking forward to your visit!

Wellness at the Hotel Maritim

The Wellness, Beauty and Nails area of the Hotel Maritim, located on the ground floor (turn left at the entrance to the conference area) is offering wellness specials to participants at the sessions.

Opening hours

Monday to Friday	10.00–21.00
Saturday	9.30–17.00

Anything else I should know?

Food and drink are not permitted in the meeting rooms.

Please help keep the conference premises a non-smoking environment. Smokers are encouraged to enjoy the fresh air around the Hotel Maritim.

Participants are requested not to remove interpretation headsets from the foyers or meeting rooms.

To align ourselves with current waste regulations and to help protect the environment, we ask all participants and colleagues to follow the advice below. Three different types of waste bin are allocated around the conference premises. Please sort waste according to:

Blue bins: paper
Black bins: plastic
Light grey bins: other waste

We appreciate all the efforts made by participants and staff to achieve a cleaner environment.
