INFORMATION NOTE

Transportation United Nations Climate Change Conference

Warsaw, Poland, 11 to 22 November 2013

This note aims to provide participants with transport information which is designed to assist in finding their way to the venues for the preparatory sessions and the Conference venue for the upcoming sessions of United Nations Climate Change Conference to be held in Warsaw, Poland from 11 to 22 November 2013.

Warsaw offers an elaborate public transit network of tram, bus, metro and urban rapid rail lines. Conference participants may use public transport free of charge provided they present the conference participant badge bearing their name. The badges will be distributed at the registration desk at the Warsaw National Stadium and are valid for use on buses, trains and trams serving the Warsaw region. The schedules put up at stops provide indicative travel times.

The city's trams and buses carry on-board electronic information displays backed up with voice announcement systems.

More information about Warsaw public transport can be found on:

Warsaw is also served by several taxicab companies. The best way to summon a taxi is by telephone. If possible, participants may ask for the assistance in securing a taxi by asking a City Information Point attendant. Not all taxi drivers speak English. However a majority do and if in doubt, it is best to have the destinations written and shown to the drivers.

For more specific information on taxi services please consult the following link to the official City of Warsaw website:

Important Information on Warsaw Bus system:

Markings of bus numbers/lines servicing a given stop are also indicated at the stop (<http://static.panoramio.com/photos/large/12961967.jpg>). A number of stops of selected bus lines are only on-demand stops. The line is marked as “na żądanie” (on-demand Stop), and the number surround is green (for day lines).

In order to board the bus at the on-demand Stop, participants will need to signal your intent to the driver early enough by raising your hand in an apparent manner.

There are timetables available at stops indicating times of departures, and listing all stops on the route. Temporary timetables, related with, e.g. diversions, are printed on yellow paper.
