

Non-CO₂ greenhouse gas emissions reduction in the UK
Mr. Stephen Cornelius, United Kingdom

The presentation will share experiences from the UK on reducing non-CO₂ greenhouse gas emissions, particularly methane and nitrous oxide. The UK's non-CO₂ emissions fell 46% from base-year levels by 2005 and are continuing to fall. This significantly contributes to the UK's overachievement of its first Kyoto Protocol greenhouse gas commitment.