Jill Peeters

Founder of the Climate without Borders

Jill Peeters is an award-winning Belgian weather presenter. Jill has been communicating on climate matters for more than 10 years. She gives presentations to children, business people and politicians. Jill has also produced and created an award-winning documentary on extreme weather. Her books on climate are based on the scientific outcomes of the IPCC.

COP 15 in Copenhagen awakened her interest in the climate policy process of UNFCCC. Jill has also supported the WMO at workshops on climate communication in Tokyo, Paris and Marrakesh.

In 2017 she founded 'Climate without Borders', a global network of weather presenters that work to raise climate awareness.

She is married and the mother of three lovely daughters.
