INFORMATION NOTE

NAP Expo 2016: Advancing National Adaptation Plans post-Paris

11-15 July 2016, Bonn, Germany

I am pleased to inform Parties and observer States to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and its Kyoto Protocol that the NAP Expo for this year will be held from 11 to 15 July 2016, in Bonn, Germany. The fourth in the series, the theme for this year's event is Advancing National Adaptation Plans post-Paris.

The NAP Expo is an annual outreach event organized by the Least Developed Countries Expert Group (LEG), in collaboration with various bodies and organizations, to promote exchange of experiences and foster partnerships between a wide range of actors and stakeholders on how to advance national adaptation plans (NAPs). It brings together national leaders and policymakers on NAPs, as well as representatives from the Green Climate Fund, the Global Environment facility, United Nations organizations, international organizations, bilateral and multilateral agencies, regional centres and networks, as well as scientists and practitioners.

Interested Parties and observer States should contact the secretariat through the following e-mail address in order to register for the event:

napexpo@unfccc.int

The deadline for registration is Friday 10 June 2016. In view of the need to confirm the arrangements for the meeting as early as possible, please be advised that the secretariat may not be in a position to process registrations received after this deadline.

Distribution: To Parties and observer States through their National Focal Points for climate change and diplomatic missions accredited to the Federal Republic of Germany.
To United Nations Secretariat units and bodies, specialized agencies and related organizations.

The event will offer space for exhibitions, showcasing progress in the process to formulate and implement NAPs in countries as well as relevant activities and support by organizations. Please communicate your interest for exhibition space when registering.

Further information about the event, including the exact venue, draft programme and information for participants will be made available at the following website <<http://unfccc.int/9547>>.

Yours sincerely,
