

Support for the Electro-Mobility Declaration and Call to Action
December 2015

Wuppertal Institute for Climate, Environment and Energy

Geographical coverage: Germany

Summary: The Wuppertal Institute brings in its longstanding experience with a multitude of national, European and international projects on sustainable transport. It currently leads an international project (SOLUTIONS) on sustainable mobility around the world funded by the EU and contributes to other projects such as FLOW and EMPOWER (H2020), TIDE (FP7), EVIDENCE (IEE), and SHAPE-IT (ERA-NET).

Time-frame: Founded in 1992 and ongoing.

Reporting: Reporting via the NAZCZA platform and project websites

Lead or sponsoring Entity(s): Wuppertal Institute

Partners: Cooperation with a multitude of partners in Europe and internationally

Contact: Oliver Lahl; oliver.lah@wupperinst.org

Other: www.wupperinst.org