Informal ministerial round table for a shared vision on long-term cooperative action

The President will convene an informal ministerial round table for a shared vision on long-term cooperative action during the high-level segment. The round table will enable ministers and heads of delegations to exchange views on how they intend to work in a collaborative manner to combat climate change. The round table is scheduled for Thursday, 11 December from 16.00 to 19.00 hours. The round table will also include the participation of the Secretary-General of the United Nations. Given the importance of the issue, the President would like to encourage ministers and other heads of delegation to participate in the round table in order to provide political impetus to the negotiations in 2009.

To assist ministers and other heads of delegation, the President has prepared a background document (FCCC/CP/2008/6) to help frame the debate. The document proposes a number of issues on which discussion might focus, including the importance of a comprehensive shared vision for long-term cooperative action vis-à-vis the challenges posed for mitigating and adapting to climate change and creating a suitable financial and technology support infrastructure to enable the necessary actions. The document also includes questions that may assist ministers and other heads of delegation in focusing their interventions during the round table.

To further facilitate the discussion, the President will organize the round table around three key topics, with approximately one hour of discussion per topic:

- Long-term cooperative action on climate change, towards achieving the ultimate objective of the Convention.
- Preparing ourselves for unavoidable climate change, building resilience and implementing adaptation plans.
- The architecture that will deliver on finance, technology and capacity-building and on the reporting of actions and support for such actions.

There will be no formal speakers list prepared in advance of the session. Following the opening of the round table, ministers should raise their flags to indicate their interest in making a contribution. The President will request the understanding of ministers on time limitations for interventions, which ideally should not exceed two minutes for each speaker. Ministers may wish to reflect upon which of the three topics would be most appropriate for their intervention.

The round table will take place in Alpine Accentor (Plenary 2). There will be one seat for the minister or head of delegation, and one seat behind for an adviser. Additional seating will be available at the sides and back of the room. Interpretation will be available. The round table will be broadcast live on CCTV and webcast.

The President will issue, under his responsibility, a summary of the round-table discussions for inclusion in the report of COP 14 on Friday, 12 December 2008.

Lost and found items

The following items have been handed in to UN Security Office. Owners may collect them from Hall 15A, next to the main entrance:

cameras 1	caps 7
coats 1	spectacles 1
gloves 6	keys 2
mobile phones 1	notebooks 5
pen drives 7	scarves 9
other items 70

Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. Documents left in meeting rooms and on unattended desks will be removed.

Host country team has developed the mobile phone application

A first for the UNFCCC process, you can now view the Daily Programme, updated in real time, on your mobile phone. The Programme, together with other interactive information, is available as a downloadable application. To download the guide, launch the WAP browser of your phone and enter the following address: <<http://cop14.looksoft.pl>>. After the page is loaded, select the link "download" to obtain the mobile guide.

Video conference facilities available in the COP 14 venue

A video conference service will be in operation throughout the conference, on a commercial basis. The service may be used by all participants to conduct video conferences with others anywhere in the world. The video conference service uses standard ISDN or Internet IP connections and will connect to similar equipment. Technical information and booking forms are available from the UNFCCC COP 14 website, under "Services to participants".

Please contact Ms. Monika Stepien at +48 61 869 28 91 or by e-mail at: <cop14@mtp.pl>.

Webcasts of the sessions

For the duration of the conference, all official meetings and press conferences will be available live and on demand, with English or floor audio streams. On-demand files will be available shortly after the close of each meeting.

A selection of side-events will be available on demand in floor languages. Please check the UNFCCC website for the date and time of webcast sessions at <unfccc.int>.

Internet services for participants

Free Internet access in the PlugNplay zone

All participants are invited to take advantage of the free Internet (PlugNplay) service throughout the Conference facility. These services are available in two categories as described below; in either case you do not have to make any changes to settings.

Open network (RJ45) sockets available on the tables located in the Media and Computer Centres

Simply plug the cable into the network port on your laptop. If you need a cable, please request one from the computer support staff located in the respective support areas. Look out for staff wearing blue T-shirts with the COP 14 logo.

WiFi (Wireless) network services available throughout the Conference facility.

The Wireless network is identified by the service: PlugNplay and PlugNplayVPN (for those needing VPN services).

Note of caution:

The PlugNplay network is open, with no security protection or restrictions. To remain safe, all participants are advised to use appropriate ANTIVIRUS and PERSONAL FIREWALL software and to follow IT security best practice.

Paint for the Planet exhibit

"Paint for the Planet" is a UNEP exhibit of children's art that launched the United Nations campaign "UNite to Combat Climate Change" in New York in October 2008. The paintings are drawn from the UNEP International Children's Painting Competition and showcase children's fears and hopes for the planet. The paintings are on show in the central corridor between Hall 15 and Halls 7/8. The exhibit's theme is also captured in the "UNite to Combat Climate Change" banner hanging above the Climate Change Kiosk.

Credentials

"Credentials of representatives, alternate representatives and advisers shall be issued either by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs." Delegations are kindly requested to present the corresponding letters of credentials to the External Relations team in the Conference Affairs office, located in Hall 15B.

Delegation nameplates

Delegates are kindly requested not to remove country nameplates from the meeting rooms. The secretariat is unable to replace these at short notice and this can lead to serious disruptions at meetings.

Security

Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements.

Information for participants	A booklet on the facilities available at the conference venue, entitled “Information for participants” is available from the Information desk in Hall 15B and also on the COP 14 website .
...inSide climate change publications counter	Participants wishing to distribute documents should contact staff of the Observer Organizations Liaison team on the third floor of Hall 14B. The ...inSide climate change publications counter is located in Hall 15B. Posters and flyers relating to side events may be affixed to the Poster boards available at prominent locations around the conference venue.
Meditation room	A room for meditation and prayer is available to participants on demand. Please contact staff at the Information desk in Hall 15B.
Facilities for non-governmental organizations	Offices for the business and industry organizations (BINGOs), environmental groups (ENGOs), indigenous peoples organizations (IPOs), local government and municipal authorities (LGMAs), research and independent NGOs (RINGOs), and the trade union NGOs (TUNGOs) are located in Hall 14B on the first floor.

Warsaw shuttle bus from airport to train station

In cooperation with Warsaw city hall, a special line has been opened for delegates arriving in Warsaw and needing to travel by train to Poznan. More details can be found at www.cop14.gov.pl.

Events

For a full schedule of side events during the sessions and a list of the exhibits, please see the brochure "...inSide climate change", available from the Information desk and the Documents distribution counter, or visit the UNFCCC website. The secretariat would like to note that the scheduling of events remains dependent upon the demands of the negotiating process. For short-term changes please consult the CCTV monitors.

Side events

13.00– 15.00	Technology transfer, the IP system and climate change: challenges and options What is the relationship between technology development and transfer on the one hand, and IPRs on the other?	United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) Ms. Marina Ploutakhina m.ploutakhina@unido.org +43 126 026 5051	Aesculapian Snake
13.00– 15.00	Where do market mechanisms go from here? Demonstrating the co-benefits of climate change mitigation and a proposal for CDM reform The fate of project-based mechanisms such as the CDM will rest on the achievements and possibilities for further improvements. This side event will feature the results of a demonstration project of co-benefits and a proposal for CDM reform, both based on actual experiences in Asian countries.	Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES) Mr. Kazuhisa Koakutsu koakutsu@iges.or.jp +81 46 855 3825	White Tailed Eagle
13.00– 15.00	Equitable financing: funding adaptation and mitigation from a gender perspective WEDO, together with HBF, ActionAid, and GGCA, will launch two new country-specific case studies and discuss why and how the financial mechanisms must be gender responsive and build resilience at the local level.	Women's Environment and Development Organization (WEDO) Ms. Cate Owren cate@wedo.org +1 212 973 0325	Grebe
13.00– 15.00	Incorporating contemporary science and indigenous knowledge for adaptation to climate change Panel discussion with indigenous leaders and Western climate scientists to share a common understanding of the changes occurring in a variety of regions. Knowledge of adaptation will be shared and a common strategy developed on how national governments have to respond to the challenge of climate change.	Inuit Circumpolar Conference (ICC) Ms. Oxana Golovkina; Ms. Leanna Ellsworth ogolovkina@inuitcircumpolar.com +613 563 2642	Fox
18.00– 19.30	Architectures for agreement: interim report of Harvard Project on International Climate Agreements Synthesis of an extensive research effort conducted by 29 teams of leading experts from developed and developing countries, whose goal is to identify key design principles of a scientifically sound, economically rational, and politically pragmatic post-2012 international policy architecture.	Harvard University Mr. Robert Stowe robert_stowe@harvard.edu +1 617 496 4265	Aesculapian Snake

18.00– 19.30	Post 2012 – international action supporting domestic action Negotiations move towards a new framework, with increasing emphasis on domestic action and diversity of targets. International offsets are assumed by some to have a declining role; questions are raised on the ability of offsets to deliver levels of real GHG reductions, sustainable development and technology transfer. The Climate Change Adaptation in Africa programme invites speakers from ICPAC, CILSS and other African institutions to address links between climate change and food security in Africa.	International Development Research Centre (IDRC) Ms. Mary O'Neill maoneill@idrc.ca +1 613 236 6163 ext. 2108	Aesculapian Snake

European Union Pavilion

The EU Pavilion is located in Hall 9.

10.30–12.30	Climate change and forced migration Under the EU's framework programme for research international collaboration is under way in Africa, Latin America, Asia and the Pacific, focusing on environmental and climate change and their links with (forced) migration. This event will present case study results, future scenarios and the policy implications of this collaboration.	European Commission, DG Research	Chopin
10.30–12.30	Emissions trading from allocation to enforcement – how it works This workshop aims to provide insights into the practical aspects of emissions trading. It will take participants through the major steps of implementation, from allocation of certificates to their surrender and enforcement through sanctions. The workshop will also cover the practical aspects of providing an electronic infrastructure for all actors involved.	German Federal Environment Agency (UBA)	Rubinstein
13.00–15.00	How do carbon pricing and development interact? To take into account GHG emission reductions in their funding choices, development finance institutions have to give a price to carbon emissions in their project appraisals. To help with this choice, a set of scenarios encompassing a wide array of controversial visions on climate change will be presented.	French Development Agency (AFD) and Centre International de Recherche sur l'Environnement et le Développement (CIRED)	Rubinstein
15.30–17.30	Consumption model approach to emission analysis Within the context of the Regional Activity Center for cleaner production, representatives of the Spanish Ministry of Environment and the Department of Environment of the Catalonian Region will present the results of the consumption model approach to emission analysis.	Spanish Ministry of Environment	Chopin
15.30–17.30	How can models help to make cost-efficient policy decisions and reach long-term targets? Long-term targets can only be achieved through concrete mitigation measures. This session will show the role of GHG projections in developing GHG policies in different sectors and how a techno-economic bottom-up model can contribute to a cost-effective environmental policy.	VITO, Belgium	Rubinstein
18.00–20.00	The role of JI today and in a post-2012 framework JI not only makes it possible to achieve cost-efficient emission reductions in sectors not covered by other forms of trading schemes or measures, but also functions as a carbon price "safety valve." Under a new global climate agreement the scope of JI will potentially increase considerably in terms of new participants among project developers and investors. This session will look at current and future prospects.	Romania	Chopin

IETA events

For the fourth year running, the International Emissions Trading Association (IETA) holds its Carbon Finance event, as well as a series of side events, which will take place in Hall 12. Please see the IETA Side Events brochure for greater detail.

13.00– 14.30	Post 2012 – international action supporting domestic action Negotiations move towards a post-2012 framework, with increasing emphasis on domestic action and diversity of forms of targets. International offsets are assumed by some to have a declining role; questions are increasingly raised on the ability of offsets to deliver levels of real GHG reductions, sustainable development and technology transfer. But what could take their place?	EU Commission, Baker & McKenzie, Natsource, Bennet Jones, Statkraft, ITRI	Wild Sheep
18.30– 21.30	IETA members evening reception		Brovaria Restaurant, Stary Rynek 73, 74 Poznan

Wind Power Works Pavilion

From Thursday, 4 December through Thursday, 11 December, the Global Wind Energy Council will open the doors of the Wind Power Works Pavilion. During the eight days there will be over 30 side events and receptions hosted by a variety of organizations; a photo exhibition, free coffee and wifi. For more information, please visit <<http://www.windpowerworks.net>>.

The functions of side events at COPs

The Mistra Climate Policy Research Programme and the Centre for Climate Science and Policy Research present the results of a study on side events at COP 13 in Bali. The study results can be obtained from cspr@tema.liu.se or downloaded from www.cspr.se/publications. The briefing in White Tailed Eagle today from 09.00 to 10.30 is by invitation only.

Other activities*NGO party

The traditional NGO party, to which all participants of COP 14 are invited, takes place tonight at the Tuba Club, ul. Male Garbary 6, from 19.00 onwards. Please present your Conference badge at the entrance. Those interested are advised to arrive early, as space is limited.

Forthcoming activities

Ecumenical Celebration on Climate Change

The World Council of Churches and the Polish Ecumenical Council invite participants to COP 14 and CMP 4 to the traditional Ecumenical Celebration on Climate Change. Since 1992 during the UNCED in Rio de Janeiro, and since 1995 during COP 1 in Berlin, these celebrations have taken place to affirm the spiritual presence of churches and faith communities in the negotiation process.

This year the celebration, which will take place on Sunday, 7 December, from 17.00 to 19.00 hours, will be dedicated to the 60th Anniversary of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948–2008.

A fraternal reception will follow.

Venue: Parafia Ewangelicka-Augsburska w Poznaniu (Augsburg-Evangelical Parish of Poznan)
ul. Obozowa 5 (Obozowa Street 5)
Poznan

To get there, take a five-minute ride on either tram 3 or 15 from Poznan International Fair, on Grunwaldzka Street.

Launch of joint CIDSE/Caritas Internationalis campaign

On the occasion of the launch of their joint campaign on development and climate justice, CIDSE and Caritas Internationalis invite all participants to a Holy Mass on Sunday, 7 December 2008 at 12.30 in the Church of St. Stanislaus (Fara Church, ul. Golebia 1, Poznań).

A press conference will take place at 10.30 in the Działyński Palace (Stary Rynek 78/79, Poznań). Bishop Theotonijs Gomes C.S.C. from Bangladesh and representatives from CIDSE and Caritas Internationalis will present the campaign and the networks' policy demands.

On Sunday evening at 18.00 hours, CIDSE and Caritas Internationalis invite interested participants to a reception in the Działyński Palace (Stary Rynek 78/79, Poznań). Please register at climate-justice@cidse.org.

Muslim League prayer house

The prayer house of the Muslim League is located at Biedrzyckiego Street 13. To get there, leave the fairgrounds near McDonalds, turn right and take tram number 5, 8 or 14. Exit four tram stops later at "Krauthofer".

The Climate Group: Climate Leaders Summit

This event will be held at 09.00 on Monday, 8 December at the Sheraton Hotel, Universia Conference Room, Bukowska 3/9, and will feature a video message from the Governor of California, H.E. Mr. Arnold Schwarzenegger.
