Opening of the high-level segment

On Wednesday, 15 December 2004, His Excellency, Mr. D. Nestor Carlos Kirchner, President of Argentina, will open the high-level segment. Access to Plenary I will be limited after 10.15 a.m. Participants are requested to take their seats by 10.20 a.m. The opening ceremony will begin at 10.30 a.m. The proceedings of Plenary I will be broadcast in Plenary II and on all CCTV monitors.

Vehicles will be unable to access calle Juncal after 10.15 a.m.

After the opening ceremony plenary will recommence with statements by United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and related organizations.

Information on the panel discussions during the high-level segment

The high-level segment of COP 10 will include four panel discussions, which will be the mode for exchanges between ministers and other heads of delegation.

Arrangements

The panel discussions will be convened in one of the plenary halls. Each delegation will have one seat at the microphone and one adviser seat behind. There will also be overflow seating in the room. Observers may attend the panel discussions which will also be broadcast on the CCTV monitors and on the web.

Opening presentations

For each panel discussion, the panel moderator will make an opening statement. The panel members will then be invited to offer their views.

Interventions from the floor

Following the opening presentations, the floor will be opened for comments by ministers and other heads of delegation. Parties should raise their flags to indicate their interest in making a contribution.

Due to the short time available, ministers and heads of delegation are invited to provide short and focused commentaries of no more than three minutes.

Publications

UNFCCC 10th anniversary publication

To mark the tenth anniversary of the entry into force of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the secretariat has published a special book: "The First Ten Years". This publication provides an overview of actions taken during the past decade to combat climate change and mitigate its adverse effects. It looks at recent emissions trends and prospects, and considers how concern about climate change fits in with strategies for sustainable development.

CCKIOSK

Colourful graphs, charts and photographs accompany the text.

Copies of "The First Ten Years" are available from the Climate Change Kiosk following the close of the opening meeting. The publication can also be downloaded from the UNFCCC web site: <unfccc.int>.

Press briefings

Algarrobo is the assigned press conference room for official press briefings during COP 10. Delegations that wish to hold a press conference for a time slot of 30 minutes are kindly requested to contact the Conference Spokesperson, Michael Williams, in the Media Coordination offices in the Green Pavilion and on telephone number 011 4777 5643 or mobile 15 5773 7722.

Aguaribay is the assigned press conference room for observer organizations.

10–10.30 a.m.	WWF	Aguaribay (Green Pavilion)

Announcements

Free publication for non-Annex I Parties	Complimentary copies of The International Climate Change Regime: A Guide to the Rules, Institutions and Procedures by Farhana Yamin and Joanna Depledge have been provided to all non-Annex 1 Parties, courtesy of the Department for International Development (DFID), United Kingdom. This book will be launched at a side event today from 6–8 p.m. in Aguaribay.	Delegation pigeonholes
Lost and found items	Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings unattended in meeting rooms, corridors or offices. The Security office, located opposite the Registration area in the Foyer, is responsible for lost and found items.
Provision of statements to the Media Centre	Delegations wishing to have their statements distributed to the media are kindly requested to leave copies at the Media Information Counter in the Green Pavilion. Staff will make copies of all statements received and distribute them within the Centre.
Climate Change Kiosk	Located in the exhibit area, the Climate Change Kiosk (CCKIOSK) is staffed daily between 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. The Climate Change Kiosk's primary goal is to provide information about the climate change process and the secretariat. A special feature of the CCKIOSK is the climate talk series that features presentations by delegates, NGOs, specialized agencies and others on a specific theme. This year's theme is "Ten years on ... success stories in the climate change process". Please visit the kiosk or consult the online schedule for full details.
Emergency medical services	The Federal Ministry of Health and Environment has kindly arranged with the Dirección Nacional de Emergencias Sanitarias (DINESA) to provide emergency medical services for all accredited COP 10 participants. Two locations in the green and blue pavilions are equipped with an observation room, an ECG monitoring system and a fully-equipped first-aid room. These services are complemented by an intensive care transport unit. The medical staff are bilingual and highly qualified and provide a 24-hour service. The two units can be reached by telephone as follows: Blue Pavilion: 15 5745 1902 Green Pavilion: 15 5745 1908	Blue Pavilion and Green Pavilion
Information for participants	A booklet on the facilities available at the conference venue, entitled Information for participants, is available from the Information desk in the Green Pavilion and also on the UNFCCC COP 10 web site. A guide for participants as well as information on Argentina, Buenos Aires, hotels, and renting office space and equipment can be found on the UNFCCC COP 10 web site.

Security	Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements.
Meditation room	A room for meditation and prayer is available to participants behind Plenary II (Ombú).
Pigeonholes for delegates	Pigeonholes for the distribution of official documents and messages, which delegates are kindly requested to check at regular intervals, are located next to the Documents counter. Messages may also be placed on the message boards opposite the Information desk in the Green Pavilion. Participants are requested to refrain from distributing non-official material via the pigeonholes.
“Article 6 activities”	To assist participants in their search for individual rooms around the conference venue, each room bears a photograph of an Argentinian tree, which lends its name to the room.
COP 10 t-shirts	WWF, in collaboration with Fundación Vida Silvestre Argentina, is offering t-shirts to COP 10 participants.	Blue Pavilion
Free posters	The European Space Agency (ESA) is offering attractive posters of a satellite view of the River Plate delta.	ESA stand (Green Pavilion)
Connecting laptops to the Internet at COP 10	Participants with laptops may access the Internet (PlugNplay network) through two services available in the conference venue (primarily Green Pavilion). These services are available in two categories. In neither case does any change need to be made to your system.
Category #1. Loose network (nodes) cables are available in the Computer Centre for delegates and observers and in the Media Centre for journalists. To use this service, simply plug the cable into your laptop. Cables are black or yellow in colour.
Category #2. WiFi (Wireless) network services are available throughout the conference facility. To use this service, a computer equipped with a Wireless network component is needed. The wireless network is identified by the name: PlugNplay. Choose the PlugNplay point with the highest percentage of availability for better service. No changes are needed to your system to take advantage of this service. The best "hot spots" are indicated with PlugNplay banners.
Caution! The PlugNplay network is open, with no restrictions or protection. In order to ensure safe operation, please follow the best practice tips below:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Install and/or update your antivirus software. 2. Activate your personal firewall if your computer has such software installed. WindowsXP users should activate the Windows firewall feature. 3. Assign your computer a suitable name e.g. the name of your organization, company or delegation.
