Calendar: adapting to global change

The Rio Convention secretariats – the Convention on Biological Diversity, the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification and the UNFCCC – have worked together to produce a special calendar for 2005. The calendar was published with the assistance of the Entico Corporation and sponsorship provided by 12 institutions and organizations.

CCKIOSK

The calendar features the thought-provoking photographs of the French photographer, Yann Arthus-Bertrand, and shows people and places from around the world that are especially vulnerable as well as providing examples of successful adaptation to change.

The calendars will be distributed one copy per participant on a first come, first served basis.

The First Ten Years -
Los Diez Primeros
Años

Copies of the secretariat publication are available from the Climate Change Kiosk or Media Centre in English and in Spanish. The publication was prepared to mark the 10th anniversary of the entry into force of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and provides an overview of information available and actions taken at international and national level. Full colour illustrations and charts accompany the text.

CCKIOSK

This is an important addition to all climate change reference collections.

Claro Oscuros del
Ambiente:
Argentina's first environmental photo

The top 26 entries to the competition were presented to ministers and heads of delegation at the Art Lunch of the UNFCCC Executive Secretary. The photographs will be on view outside and inside the meeting room Lenga in the Yellow Pavilion until 6 p.m.

(Yellow Pavilion)Provision of Security Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements.

Lost and found items Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings unattended in meeting rooms, corridors or offices. The Security office, located opposite the Registration area in the Foyer, is responsible for lost and found items.
