SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Informal presentation of programme budget 2004–2005

Following the tradition in the UNFCCC process of an early informal discussion on the next programme budget proposal for 2004–2005, the Executive Secretary will make an informal presentation on Monday, 28 October from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. in Hall 4 with initial thoughts on key areas of work and resource needs to be covered by the proposal. This will enable the UNFCCC secretariat to receive some feedback from Parties.

Ministerial luncheon

Delegations are requested to note that the Executive Secretary will host a luncheon for heads of delegation on Thursday, 31 October.

Press briefings

(Strictly reserved for the media)

Hall 6, on the second floor of the main building at the Vigyan Bhawan, is the assigned press conference room during COP 8. Delegates who wish to hold a press conference are kindly requested to contact the Conference Spokesperson, Michael Williams, on the ground floor of the Annex building to book Hall 6 for a time slot of 30 minutes. (Tel.: 9818095223)

NGO press briefings

The following NGOs will hold press briefings in the press conference room (Hall 6).

11 a.m. Climate Action Network (CAN)

Noon Institute for Solid Waste Research and Ecological Balance (INSWAR)

The Climate Change Kiosk

The second Climate Talk Day on “business and climate” will take place between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. in the atrium of Vigyan Bhawan on the ground floor. Featured are speakers from the International Gas Union (IGU), the German Emissions Trading Association (BVEK), Responding to Climate Change (RTCC), the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India and UNFCCC. The goal of the theme day is to demonstrate linkages between, and share information about, the work of Parties, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and others that are active in the climate change process. The webcast of the talk and other information materials will be posted on the UNFCCC COP 8 web site. For more information, contact Sharon Taylor (staylor@unfccc.int) or visit the kiosk.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Facilities for non-governmental organizations

Offices for the business and industry organizations (BINGOs), environmental groups (ENGOS) and local non-governmental organizations (local NGOs) are located on the first floor of the Annex as follows:

BINGOs	Room 272
ENGOS	Room 274
Local NGOs	Room 275

Meetings of non-governmental organizations

Business and industry groups will meet each day between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. in Hall G.
Environmental groups will meet each day between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. in Hall 4.

NGO party

The non-governmental organizations (NGOs) invite all participants to join them at the traditional NGO party on Saturday, 26 October, from 9 p.m. onwards at the Indian Habitat Centre.

Information for participants

A booklet detailing the various facilities and services available to participants is available from the Information desk.

Credentials

Credentials of representatives, alternate representatives and advisers shall be issued either by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs. Delegations are kindly requested to forward the corresponding letter of credentials to the secretariat in the Conference Affairs office on the first floor (Carrie Assheuer).

Security

Enhanced measures have been put in place to ensure the safety and security of conference participants. Consequently, they are requested to co-operate with the security team if they are requested to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements. To this end, participants should ensure that they wear their conference badges in full view at all times.

Lost and found items

Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. The Security office, located near the entrance to the main building, is responsible for lost and found items.

Meditation room

A room for meditation and prayer is available to participants on the first floor of the conference centre. Those who wish to use this facility should go to the Information desk, where they will be given appropriate directions.

Pigeonholes for delegates

Pigeonholes for the distribution of official documents and messages are located in the documents distribution area, which delegates are kindly requested to check at regular intervals. Messages may also be placed on the message boards in the foyers of the ground floor, first floor and second floor of the main building and on the ground floor of the Annex. Participants are requested to refrain from distributing non-official material via the pigeonholes. All such material should be placed on the tables specially designated for this purpose.

Climate Expo: climate change and sustainable development

Participants are invited to visit Climate Expo, an exhibition on climate change and sustainable development, organized by the Ministry of Environment and Forests and the Confederation of Indian Industry on the lawns of Hotel Ashok, Chanakya Puri, New Delhi from 28 October to 1 November between noon and 8 p.m. each day. Special coaches have been arranged from the Vigyan Bhawan and the India Habitat Centre to the exhibition venue and back at regular intervals, starting at 11.30 a.m.

Joint implementation learning experience

Participants are invited to take part in the joint implementation (JI) learning experience on the ground floor outside the Plenary hall, anytime during the day, through Friday, 1 November. The learning experience, in the form of a game, projected into the year 2008 and with the Kyoto Protocol in force, gives participants insight into the joint implementation project cycle. Organizer: Swedish Energy Agency.

Cottage Industries Emporium

Participants wishing to visit India's largest handicraft emporium, the Cottage Industries Emporium in Janpath, New Delhi, which is open until 9 p.m. daily (including the weekend), should note that Delhi Tourism will provide special coaches to interested participants on Tuesday, 29 October, with departures starting at 7 p.m. from the parking area at the rear of the Vigyan Bhawan. Participants will be returned to their hotels at 9 p.m. Participants are requested to notify the Delhi Tourism desk if they wish to avail themselves of this offer.
