Background

The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) is the focus of the political process to address Climate Change. The Convention secretariat supports the Convention and its Kyoto Protocol by a range of activities, including substantive and organizational support to meetings of the Parties.

The Executive Direction and Management (EDM) programme promotes the overall coherence of the work of the secretariat and its responsiveness to the needs of the Convention and Protocol bodies. EDM provides overall leadership and strategic guidance to the secretariat, liaises with presiding officers of the Convention and Protocol bodies and with high-level representatives of Parties and observers; undertakes analysis of emerging policy issues; coordinates the secretariat's representational, outreach and public information activities; oversees the management of the financial and human resources of the secretariat and maintains the information flow for the whole secretariat.

Responsibilities

The Team Assistant's post is located in the Executive Direction and Management programme and more specifically in the Office of the Executive Secretary which coordinates outreach activities to a broad range of stakeholders including other agencies and the Secretary General's office; provides support to secretariat-wide internal management; coordinates internal oversight and work processes in order to improve efficiency; and coordinates overall support to the Executive Secretary's missions and strategic communications. The incumbent of the post is accountable for:

- Documentation and correspondence;
- Secretarial and administrative support.

He/she will work under the general supervision of the Programme Officer leading the Executive Secretary's Support team and the direct supervision of the Correspondence Assistant.

1. Documentation and correspondence:

- Reads, categorizes and logs into an electronic database all incoming executive correspondence, including invitations to meetings and/or events; monitors the status of invitations and follows up daily with the Travel Focal Points of all programmes; provides cross-references and back referrals, ensures no duplicate entries into the database; forwards correspondence electronically to the Mail Focal Points within the secretariat, regularly follows up on pending issues in a timely manner and responds directly to, or forwards to the responsible officer, incoming emails and telephone enquiries from the external organizers of events.

- Responds to queries from the substantive programmes regarding the travel plan and updates the relevant programme Focal Point lists, templates and material used for training staff on travel plan procedures.
- Drafts routine correspondence and official replies to invitations for signature of the supervisor, Executive Secretary, Chief of Staff and other staff in the Executive Direction and Management (EDM) programme, ensuring that all issues raised in the incoming correspondence are addressed and that the correct formatting and style has been adhered to.

2. Secretarial and administrative support:

- Provides clerical assistance in the implementation of secretariat-wide projects co-ordinated by the OES by e.g. updating relevant tables, incorporating submissions and monitoring status of requested inputs.
- Maintains the team's electronic and hard copy filing systems.

Requirements

(Only candidates who meet the essential requirements stated below will be considered.)

Education: Completed secondary education essential. Formal course/training in secretarial, clerical, or administrative services areas an asset.

Experience: At least four (4) years relevant experience working in an office support function carrying out secretarial/team assistant and clerical tasks essential. Experience in an international environment is an asset.

Specific professional knowledge: Good knowledge of office technology, such as MS office, especially Word, Excel, as well as experience with internet use and email. Experience in organizing complex travel arrangements is highly desirable. Experience working with databases and SharePoint is highly desirable.

Job-related skills: Good organizational and planning skills, good writing skills, excellent attention to detail and ability to work with minimal supervision.
