The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) is the focus of the political process to address Climate Change. The UNFCCC secretariat supports the Convention, its Kyoto Protocol and the historic Paris Agreement through a range of activities, including substantive and organizational support to meetings of the Parties and the implementation of commitments. It is a dynamic organization working in a politically challenging environment to help resolve one of the defining environmental issues of our time.

Where will you be working

Your post will be located in the Legal Affairs programme, which is accountable for providing legal and procedural advice and services to support (1) the intergovernmental negotiation process, (2) the implementation of the Convention, the Kyoto Protocol and the Paris Agreement and (3) the administration and operations of the secretariat.

You will have the following responsibilities:

Under the direct supervision of the Director of the Programme, you will be accountable for the following:

1. Registrar of all legal agreements and general legal advice:
 - Acting as registrar of all agreements and contracts cleared by the Legal Affairs Programme and concluded by the secretariat by handling the filing process of legal instruments and legal advice, preparing and reviewing draft legal instruments before they are transmitted to relevant legal officers for action, and preparing compare versions of repeat agreements;
 - Monitoring the Intranet workspace for legal instruments, including by liaising with client programmes;
 - Handling the clearance process of legal agreements;
 - Creating and maintaining files and databases, including by managing individual case files, maintaining and updating detailed 'docket sheets' and ensuring that all related correspondence and other documentation are appropriately filed, registered and followed-up.
2. Paralegal support:
 - Assisting in editing and conducting final checks for accuracy of a variety of specialized documentation, legal publications, and related correspondence;
 - Carrying out research for background documents and information for the institutional and general legal sub-programme;
 - Handling, with the assistance of legal officers when necessary, a variety of verbal and written inquiries from internal or external clients, including with the aim of providing detailed information on legal and procedural processes and procedures related to a range of legal activities, instruments, issues, etc.;

- Conducting basic research on other assigned issues, using existing files and alternative sources (e.g., internet, intranet or other databases);
- Following up on impending legal actions and deadlines;
- Assisting in the maintenance of a body of reference files;
- Training client programmes on the process for the handling of legal agreements.

3. Administrative support:

- Monitoring the General Legal Counsel email account and follows-up on queries sent directly to that email account; Reviewing,
- Logging and routing incoming correspondence;
- Drafting responses to routine correspondence, notes, and any other routine communications, as required;
- Maintaining and generating a variety of standard and non-standard statistical and other reports from various databases, including statistics on produced legal instruments and general legal advice;
- Scheduling appointments and meetings with client programmes and is responsible for related logistics and administrative tasks;
- Providing information to auditors and other partners/stakeholders as requested and consulting with and coordinating activities, if any, with staff of other UN entities and officials from Governments, IGOs and NGOs on cluster-related matters;
- Performing a variety of administrative duties including assisting in the archiving of documents, requesting for office supplies and equipment, etc.;
- Performing other duties as assigned, providing additional assistance to the team as well as guidance and training to less experienced staff when necessary.
