

CREATING A FLOATING COCONUT TOOL KIT WITH IMAIO, ISAKA, GALILEE, IAPOUR and IANUAK COMMUNITIES ON TANNA: UNDERSTANDING WOMEN'S AND MEN'S ROLES IN ECONOMIES IN MELANESIA: 9 DECEMBER 2014

MEN
FORMAL ECONOMY	INFORMAL ECONOMY	NON-CASH ECONOMY
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Writing project proposals -Taking minutes at council meetings -Applying for and organizing business licenses -Organizing meetings and workshops -Electoral registrations -Marriage registrations -Aid post worker -Work for financial needs - 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Making custom medicine (NC) -Fishing (NC) -Looking after all the livestock (NC) -Working in the garden (NC) - Planting taro, kava, manioc and kumala -Making handicrafts and carvings -Creating projects (eg custom dances and coffee planting) -Building bungalows 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Cutting firewood -Feeding animals -Educating the family -Hunting -Carrying all heavy materials -Carrying water -Helping with and organizing custom ceremonies -Sometimes looking after the children -Raising awareness on different topics with the community -Climbing trees, cutting wood and building houses -Cleaning the garden -Leading church services -Sometimes helping to cook -Road maintenance -Meeting with NGO's -Washing dishes -Beautification of the community -Meetings with other communities -Meeting with the community -Disciplining the family -Helping other families build their houses -Repairing houses -Reciting custom stories -Grating coconuts -Building toilets -Leading devotions -Planting trees -Weaving walls on houses and erecting floors in the house -Cutting grass -Harvesting and transporting food

WOMEN
FORMAL ECONOMY	INFORMAL ECONOMY	NON-CASH ECONOMY
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Weaving mats and baskets -Weaving Natangura -Finding work to pay for school fees Making bread and Kato -Preparing for guests -Planting kava -Making laplap and simboro -Cooking food for visitors 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Waiting for the men to come back from the Nakamal Clean up inside the kitchen -Looking after the baby when its crying -Grating coconuts -Attending committee meetings at schools -Making tables for the kitchen for storage -Carrying the babies to church -Planting manioc and taro -Creating fire -Cutting firewood -Sewing and making clothes -Cleaning the toilet -Feeding the animals (chickens and pigs) -Going to the market -Fetching water -Telling stories to the children before going to sleep (when their fathers are at the nakamal) -Folding clothes -Fishing -Breast feeding the baby -Feeding the children -Changing the babies -Looking after family when they are sick -Cut the grass around the house -Planting flowers -Collecting coconut leafs around the house -Family worship -Helping the men fix the roads -Helping the men fix the church -Climbing coconut trees -Cooking -Washing the children -Bathing oneself -Weeding -Weaving bamboos -Community meetings -Cleaning the church -Grating manioc, yams and taro -Helping family or neighbours with work -Preparing flowers for the church

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Playing sport (volleyball) -Taking children to the hospital -Looking after the garden -Taking children to school -Cleaning pots and pans -Building houses -Collecting food from the garden and carrying it back with the children -Making the beds -Sweeping the house
--	--	---

YOUNG MEN
FORMAL ECONOMY	INFORMAL ECONOMY	NON-CASH ECONOMY
- NO PAID JOBS FOR THE YOUNG MEN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Plant Kava -Mechanics -Make furniture -Build house (NC) -Logging -Tourist guide -Camping -work to do with running tourist bungalows -making blocks -Planting coffee -Custom dance -Cannibal tours -String bands 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Helping friends with work -Youth fellowship -Attending community meetings -Building road -Walking -Looking after smaller siblings -Eating -Attending workshop training -Feeding chickens, pigs and dogs -Helping with the garden work -Cutting grass -School -Fetching water for tea -Fetching firewood -Community work -Attending trainings (eg First aid) -Leading church services -Praying -Practicing good hygiene -Planting flowers -Working in the garden -Diving -Scouts -Grating coconuts -Cooking occasionally Watching videos -Listening to music -Reading Biblical scriptures -Swimming -Drinking kava -Participating in water sports -Eating -Telling stories

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Killing flying foxes and bats -Exercising -Washing clothes -Chewing kava -Hunting -Organizing celebrations -Participating in sporting activities -Smoking -Muscle fitness training -Cleaning up -Cooking
--	--	---

YOUNG WOMEN
FORMAL ECONOMY	INFORMAL ECONOMY	NON-CASH ECONOMY
NO PAID JOBS FOR THE YOUNG WOMEN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Sweep inside the bungalows -Help fathers weave bamboo walls -Help mothers sew up coconut leaves/local thatch for the houses -Help mothers prepare for market sales -Tourist guiding activities -Weave mats 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Make beds - Pray - Collect firewood - Light the fire - Cook - Fetch water - Feed animals - Clean cooking pots and dishes - Sweep the house and external areas - Participate in school activities - Decorating the church - Look after smaller children - Youth works - Help with community work - Participate in girls brigades - Go to the garden to work - Fetch water for the homes - Clean up inside the kitchen - Weed the garden - Cut the grass around the yard - Help with preparing dinner - Help with cooking dinner - Braiding hair - Plant flowers - Collect firewood - Light the fire - Fetch water - Washing clothes - Cleaning the house - Wash the dishes - Play sports - Help mothers make laplap

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fold clothes and put them away - Wash dishes - Clean up around the house - Fetch water for home consumption
--	--	--

Floating Coconut Toolkit

Young boys' group

Young girls' group

Mothers' group