

Mr. GOSEKI Kazuhiro

Mr. GOSEKI Kazuhiro is Executive Technical Advisor to the Director General of Global Environment Department of JICA (Japan International Cooperation Agency).

He has been the forester of the government of Japan since 1981, and also has experience as a forestry expert dispatched by JICA to several South-east Asian countries.

After served as the chief technical advisor of JICA's REDD+ technical cooperation project in Vietnam, he has utilized his experience in operation of JICA's projects all over the world, as well as participating in the UNFCCC COP and other international conferences as the key member of JICA's delegations, since 2013.

He studied Forestry at university and also holds an MSc in Development Study.