GUANGZHOU - providing an affordable public transport service option to more than 300,000 low income residents along the corridor

- Total length of BRT corridor is 22.6 km, with 273 km of roads in Guangzhou covered by BRT service
- 26 BRT stations along the corridor with 31 BRT routes and 558 BRT buses
- Average daily ridership of more than 850,000 boarding passengers
- 12 bike sharing stations along the BRT corridor with over 5,000 bikes
- Energy consumption of buses reduced by 4.3%
- CO2 emissions per person per trip decreased by 31.5%
- An average 86,000 tonnes of CO2 emissions per year reduced over the first decade of the project
- Benefits for the city environment