

Information about the resource persons

Ms. Liane Schalatek
Associate Director, Washington Office of the Heinrich Böll Stiftung

Liane Schalatek is the Associate Director of the Washington Office of the Heinrich Böll Stiftung.

Since 2008, she has been leading the work on climate finance for the Heinrich Böll Stiftung (a German non-profit political foundation affiliated with the German Green Party) and its 30 offices worldwide. She monitors the new Green Climate Fund (GCF) and was involved in its design process from the beginning in 2011.

Since January 2016, she has been representing developed countries civil society as active observer on the GCF Board.

As a leading expert on gender and climate finance, she has worked with governments, UN agencies and existing multilateral climate funds on this issue.

She co-founded and co-leads one of the primary civil society climate finance transparency efforts, the website www.climatefundupdate.org, a joint project with ODI.

She has engaged in UNFCCC climate negotiations as a civil society observer since COP 14.