

WFP's updates on TEG-CRM PoA (9th July 2020)

Activity	Lead/Co-leads	WFP's updates
2a, iv. Share examples from ongoing or completed CRM approaches with the TEG-CRM	WFP/IFRC	- WFP has produced a brief on how its integrated risk management programmes allow for predictable anticipatory and early responses, significantly reducing human suffering, losses and damages from climate-related disasters. - WFP CRM briefs, reports, case studies etc. are kept available and up to date on this page.
2c, C.1 Prepare paper(s) on social protection and forecast-based approaches	IFRC, WFP, ActionAid, ODI and relevant organizations (e.g. DIEb)	- WFP has reached out to IFRC to contribute to the paper on forecast-based approaches. - WFP has produced a paper and a brief on social protection and climate change, with a focus on WFP Regional Bureau for Latin America and the Caribbean's vision to advance climate change adaptation through social protection. - WFP has produced a brief highlighting 10 tips on shock-responsive social protection drawing on insights from real-life examples. - WFP and Oxford Policy Management (OPM) have produced a study on shock-responsive social protection in Latin

Focal points:

Gernot Laganda, Chief Climate & DRR Programmes Unit, WFP, gernot.laganda@wfp.org

Giorgia Pergolini, Policy & Programme Consultant, WFP, giorgia.pergolini@wfp.org

WFP's updates on TEG-CRM PoA (9th July 2020)

		America and the Caribbean showcasing a theoretical framework, five country case studies, and relevant conclusions for action. WFP has produced a paper and a brief which reviews the evidence base on anticipatory action.
2d, D.3 Conduct a desk review on the climate conflict-food security nexus	WFP/Victor Cardenas/IFRC in collaboration with relevant knowledge partners	- WFP has produced a paper on its contribution to the prospects for peace and is currently working on a research collaboration with SIPRI and the CGIAR to model climate and conflict risks in the LAC Dry Corridor. - WFP has produced a brief on the climate conflict-food security nexus in 3 languages. Discussion with activity leads/co-leads and WFP technical experts has started but not continued.
5b, B.2 Organize a side event and deliver a presentation on CRM knowledge products (e.g. evidence on costs and benefits of different risk management approaches) at the Dialogue Platform on forecast-based finance	WFP, IFRC	WFP has conducted a number of sessions/presentations during the Dialogue Platforms on forecast-based Finance which took place in 2019 in Maputo (African focus), Punta Cana (LAC focus), Manila (Asian focus), and Berlin (global focus). Reports on these sessions are available in this page. - Other Dialogue platforms will be organized in 2021 in Africa, Asia and LAC. - WFP will engage in the 8th Global Dialogue Platform on Anticipatory Humanitarian Action, scheduled for 8-10 December 2020 in Berlin.

WFP's updates on TEG-CRM PoA (9th July 2020)

5b, B.4 Prepare a paper or synthesis report on risk layering, inclusive of strategies and methodologies for assessing risk layering and risk governance [linkages with activity 3b under strategic workstream (e)]	IIASA/IFRC/Victor Cardenas/Linda Siegele/WFP (contributor) and relevant organizations	This activity has been delayed.
5c, C.2 Organize a workshop on disaster risk financing and insurance to be held at COP25 and/or other partnership forums on gender or disaster risk financing and insurance in fragile contexts [linkages with activity 3b under strategic workstream (e)]	Start Network/Mercy Corps/ActionAid/WFP	No joint workshop was organized during COP25. - During the 3rd InsuResilience Global Partnership Forum at the margins of COP25, WFP has participated in two sessions focusing on sovereign risk pools, reflecting on successes and challenges faced and exploring opportunities to link social protection and risk finance measures.