

Shining the spotlight on CGE training materials for reporting on climate change mitigation, including on Article 6 of Paris Agreement

CGE Regional webinar for Asia-Pacific region
01 August 2023

The ETF under the Paris Agreement - General framework

CGE mitigation training materials for ETF reporting: Modules

- The training materials was developed by the CGE to assist Parties in fulfilling their reporting requirements under the Convention and the Paris Agreement.
- They provide guidance over five technical modules:
 - ❑ Module A: An overview of the relevant knowledge basis for climate action
 - ❑ Module B: The latest insights into what can be done to mitigate climate change
 - ❑ Module C: Detailed information on the reporting framework on mitigation
 - ❑ Module D: A discussion on how to assess mitigation options, including strengths and weaknesses of different approaches, methods and tools
 - ❑ Module E: An overview of which information needs to be reported, including options how to report this information

CGE mitigation training materials for ETF reporting: What is covered?

CGE mitigation training materials for ETF reporting: Key features

Some of the key features of the CGE training materials you may find useful:

- Summarizes key information with graphics and other visual aids to enhance easy assimilation of technical guidance
- Uses actual examples from both developed and developing country Parties obtained from their national communications, biennial reports and biennial update reports
- Highlights important messages in boxes to draw your attention
- Provides links and references to important sources of information

Link: CGE's training materials for reporting mitigation action under the Enhanced Transparency Framework

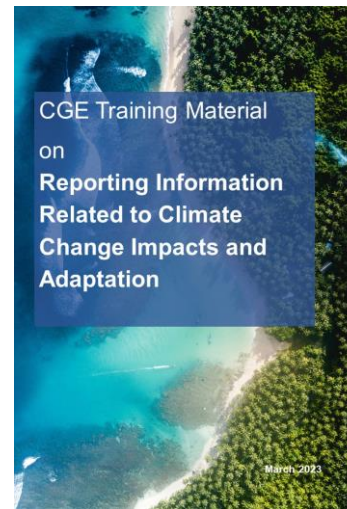

Thank you for your attention!

Available in all UN
languages

Available in all UN
languages

cgesupport@unfccc.int
www.unfccc.int/CGE

Feedback survey – please complete at end of webinar

Thank you!

https://www.surveymonkey.de/r/2023_CGE-POST-webinar_AP

