Seventh High-level Ministerial Dialogue on the Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Martin Stadelmann
Principal Policy Advisor
Environmental Finance, Swiss Federal Office of the Environment

Photo Credit: Martin Stadelmann

Mr. Martin Stadelmann is Principal Policy Advisor for Environmental Finance at Swiss Federal Office of the Environment, and thereby responsible for international environmental finance within in the Swiss government. He is member of the UNFCCC Standing Committee of Finance and the GEF Council for the Constituency of Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Switzerland, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan

He has 20 years of experience with international climate finance, having worked for NGOs, universities, the World Bank and the private sector. His PhD thesis compared the effectiveness of public climate finance and carbon markets, and he was a contributing author of the first IPCC chapter on finance (2014). During his time at Climate Policy Initiative, he further developed the Global Landscape of Climate Finance and advised various governments and multilateral institutions on tracking climate finance and unlocking private finance.

Before joining the Swiss government, he was part of South Pole's Executive Committee, leading the business lines on climate investments and climate advisory for several years with team members on all continents. He sees the mobilization of investments as the core challenge to solve to fulfill the goals of the Paris Agreement.