Profile overview

104 Participants:

- Working for a wide range of organizations
- Including 20 national focal points
- 73% experts on the UNFCCC roster
- 69% experts with review experience
- 52% with experience as LRs
- 92% willing to contribute to ETF reviews (79% for sure)

The expansion of the number of active experts in the UNFCCC roster available to support the implementation of the ETF and the first review of BTRs is:

a priority for a successful implementation of the Paris agreement needing urgent consideration.

an evolution that will occur naturally as Parties will start to submit BTRs;

currently receiving sufficient attention by Parties to the UNFCCC;

Strongly disagree

Somewhat disagree

Neither agree nor disagree

Somewhat agree

Strongly agree

- Strong agreement expansion of the number of active experts is a priority

- Wide range of view on whether the expansion will occur naturally and is receiving sufficient attention

Management of the UNFCCC roster and expert resources.

Please characterize the listed actions. Are they?

- 1 high priority (crucial to achieve results and urgent)
- 2 important improvement (less urgent)
- 3 good to have option but not a priority
- 4 probably not useful or relevant
- 5 action to avoid (please explain)
- no view on priority

- Majority support all listed actions (increase opportunities to new experts and strengthen outreach in particular)
- Minority expresses reservations regarding some actions, especially allowing to pass exams before nomination, flagging in comments especially the cost implications, and potential waste of time

Training and examinations.

Please characterize the listed actions. Are they?

- 1 high priority (crucial to achieve results and urgent)
- 2 important improvement (less urgent)
- 3 good to have option but not a priority
- 4 probably not useful or relevant
- 5 action to avoid (please explain)
- no view on priority

- Majority support all listed actions
- Minority express reservation regarding some actions, especially allowing interested trainees in TERTs as observers before the examination
- Suggestions include giving overview of exams passed to NFPs, in countries training for reviewers, training/exams in other languages than English, etc.

Organization of the reviews – challenges.

Please characterize the listed actions. Are they?

- 1 high priority (crucial to achieve results and urgent)
- 2 important improvement (less urgent)
- 3 good to have option but not a priority
- 4 probably not useful or relevant
- 5 action to avoid (please explain)
- no view on priority

- Majority support all listed actions
- Comments include specifics suggestions on possible ways to reduce the workloads of reviewers (including maintaining issue references over time, summarizing finding in shorter reports, reduce iterations of QA/QCs,...)

Organization of the reviews – logistical arrangements.

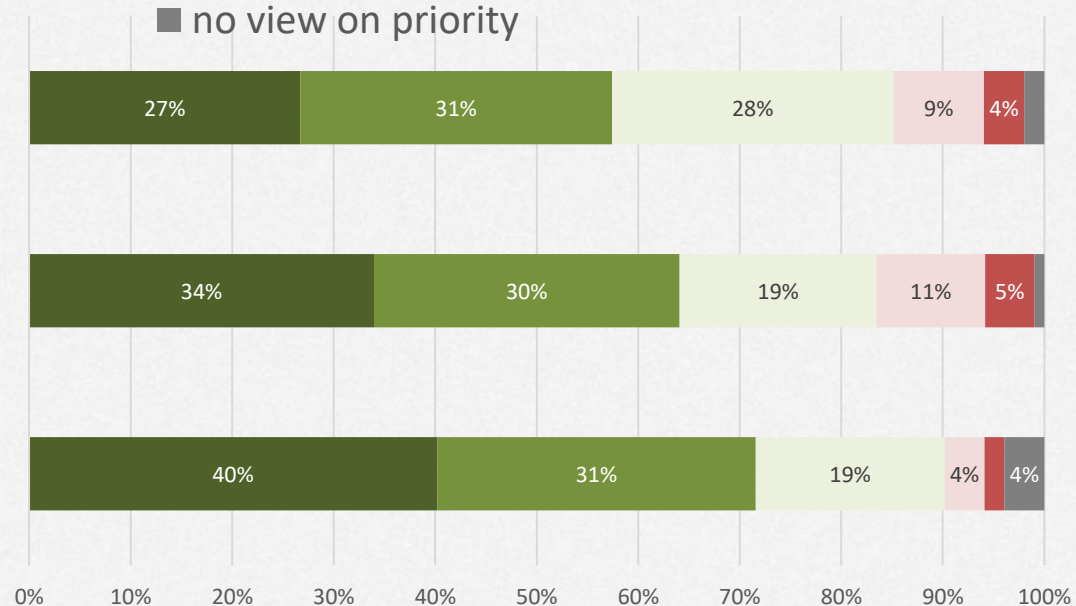

Please characterize the listed actions. Are they?

- 1 high priority (crucial to achieve results and urgent)
- 2 important improvement (less urgent)
- 3 good to have option but not a priority
- 4 probably not useful or relevant
- 5 action to avoid (please explain)
- no view on priority

To address challenges for virtual participation, offer access to a UN office in the expert country when applicable

To address challenges for in person participation, offer virtual participation as an option as often as possible

To address challenges for participation in Bonn (centralized reviews), establish standardized arrangements for experts to conduct reviews in regional facilities (e.g. regional climate centers)

- Majority support all listed actions
- Minority express reservation regarding offering virtual option as an option and access to UN office in the expert country

Review funding

Please characterize the listed actions. Are they?

- 1 high priority (crucial to achieve results and urgent)
- 2 important improvement (less urgent)
- 3 good to have option but not a priority
- 4 probably not useful or relevant
- 5 action to avoid (please explain)
- no view on priority

- Majority support all listed actions
- Least support for the development of a “provide or support experts” system and “paying experts for their services”. Some comments on the latter mentioning reservation due to cost implications, fear paying experts could lead to bias or views that “professional” reviewers is not desirable.

Recognition for participation

Please characterize the listed actions. Are they?

- 1 high priority (crucial to achieve results and urgent)
- 2 important improvement (less urgent)
- 3 good to have option but not a priority
- 4 probably not useful or relevant
- 5 action to avoid (please explain)
- no view on priority

- Majority support all listed actions
- Some further suggestions made in comments, including listing names of reviewers in relevant SBI conclusions, order countries supplying reviewers in the relevant SBSTA document by number of reviewers provided, send not only recognition letters to experts, but also to Parties.

Take out message

Survey on priorities to increase the number of active reviewers

-  More than hundred respondents. Thanks to all those who shared their views!
